Torrance Moose To Work Sunday On YW Building

Estimated completion date of the new YWCA building can be set forward a few days now, according to spokesmen for the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of the Moose.

Several weeks ago, the lodge announced its desire to do something for the community and now the members have declared Sunday as "Moose Day" for the YWCA.

Members of the lodge, which includes every trade and craft needed to speed along the construction of the YWCA building, have pledged to donate their services next Sunday to the new building at the corner of Plaza del Amo and Carson street, according to Junior Governor Stanley Heiman.

Those volunteering their services for the day will meet at 1744 West Carson street at 9 a.m. Sunday then go to the site of the new building.

"You don't have to be a Moose to help the YWCA Sunday," Heiman emphasized. Anyone who can spare an hour or a day was urged by the lodge official to give the ladies of the YWCA a hand in completing their modern new structure.

All kinds of help is needed on the building, but special appeal is being sent out this week for plasterers, tilesetters and cabinet workers to lend a hand.
