Shoestring Group Plans Smog Talks

William J. Mellor, information assistant to Gordon P. Larson, director of the Air Pollution Control District, will be the speaker at a meeting of the advisory committee to Councilman John E. Gibson next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Normandale Playground, according to Harold T. Unander, chairman of the committee.

Mellor will speak to the Shoestring residents on smog conditions and its control.

Also slated for a spot on the program is a representative of the San Pedro Police Department, who will discuss traffic control in the area with residents.

Group Sought For Theater

Persons who would be interested in acting in or helping with a production of "The Cradle Song," a Christmas play, were urged yesterday to attend a reading of the play at 1443 Post Ave. next Monday at 8 p.m.

L. D. Fitzgerald, who is organizing the group, said the play would be presented before Christmas if enough interest is shown. The play calls for ten women and three men, of all ages. He urged interested persons to read the play before the meeting.

Cement Sacks Stolen

Stolen from a construction job at 4200 and 4308 Newton St., were 38 sacks of cement used for installing a fence, Thomas J. Pilgrim, of Huntington Park, reported to police.
