Father-Son Banquet Is Successful Affair

Two hundred fathers and sons gathered at the Methodist church Thursday evening for the annual father and son banquet, which was served by young girls of the church and cooked by ladies of the Aid Society.

Leonard Snyder, superintendent of the Sunday school, acted as toastmaster. R. F. Hogue and Dr. White of Redondo Beach led the group singing. Mrs. White played the piano accompaniment. Eileen and Arthur James Maskrey were most pleasing in a character skit, "The Mistake." Both of these children are very talented and have appeared on many programs throughout the Southland and in various motion pictures. J. S. Robson played on the Victor Thermin, an interesting electrical musical instrument which has many of the boys and fathers still guessing. Toasts were given as follows: "To Dads" by Bob Sleeth, Jr.; "To Sons" by R. F. Hogue, Sr.; "To Us All," Mayor Scott Ludlow, and a musical toast by all the boys. The Hillbillies gave several selections and Billy Andrus a reading. Charles Chaplin and his son, Eric Chaplin, played an instrumental duet.

Dr. Clyde Ford, deputy superintendent of Los Angeles city schools, delivered the address of the evening. He spoke of the wonderful things that mere man has accomplished and stressed the point that the spiritual factor in life is the factor that will enable man to control and use to best advantage all of his achievements.

The pastor, Rev. Kemp Winkler, then made a few brief remarks, closing a perfect evening.

HONORED GUESTS AT DINNER

The ladies of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Guild gave a dinner Tuesday evening at Guild hall to express the appreciation of the members of the church to S. E. Merrill, teacher of agriculture at Torrance high school and the boys of his class who so ably assisted him in landscaping the grounds at the church. About 70 members attended the dinner, with Dr. George P. Shidler presiding as master of ceremonies.

Paris Styles

United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS. (U.P.)—Paris is simply in a dither about madras. It seems to have happened all of a sudden. Some say it started over a series of tailored blouses made of the stuff, some on waistcoat lines with narrow revers, others with high necks and bow ties, worn with string-colored dark toned rough linen suits for town.

This madras vogue is the brainchild of young Charley Creed of the house of Henry Creed in the Rue Royale, whose tailored things are legend and legion in smart circles. Charley even has done beach costumes in this material. With a very tailored top he designs a full pleated kilt. Short and saucy, this notion already has been bought by fashion leaders who have worn shorts and shorts and who like what this abbreviated skirt does for the thighs and legs.

In addition to madras blouses and beach outfits, there is a crop of Creed madras gloves—design used on the bias—with the turned back cuff and button on the outside of the wrist. And as if to prove how workable an idea this madras business is, Charley has made a madras umbrella with a mannish handle of highly polished bamboo. He does it in natural sand shades for sun-shades, and in bright all-one-color tones. They are nothing if not ultra-swanky!

TODAY'S FASHION TIP

There is a mad vogue for madras in Paris. Creed makes it up in blouses, beach suits, gloves and umbrellas.

Commencement At Narbonne Held On Wednesday, June 20

Commencement exercises for members of the summer class of 1934, Narbonne high school, will be held this year at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 20, on the athletic field. This is a departure from the usual custom of holding the ceremony in the auditorium in the evening.

Under instructions from the board of education, due to the outbreak of disease in Los Angeles county, all school activities of a social nature have been cut to the minimum and such affairs as are taking place are held in the open air as much as possible.

Graduation of the A-9 class will be held on the same date as the senior commencement and will also be held outdoors on Griffin field, during the morning.

PUPIL'S RECITAL AT REDONDO BEACH

Miss Flora Cronemiller, teacher of voice, who has been holding classes in Torrance for several months, will present her pupil, Sally Chaffee, in a sacred program, "The Way of Life," at the Redondo Beach First Methodist church, Broadway and Torrance boulevard, Sunday, June 10, at 7:30 p. m. Gertrude Payne Gorham will be at the piano and Miss Cronemiller will sing the offertory solo.

Next week at her home in Los Angeles, Miss Cronemiller will present four of her advanced pupils in a recital. Torrance residents who are interested in attending may telephone Torrance 60 for particulars.

ENTERTAINS MEMBERS OF BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. F. H. Clark, 1731 Andreo avenue, entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Club at her home, Thursday. Prizes for high scores at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Arthur Hodge of Lomita and Mrs. A. W. Meinzer. A consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. A. P. Stevenson. Included were Mrs. O. W. Hudson, Mrs. Arthur Hodge, Mrs. W. C. Dolley, Mrs. Ralph Hatton, Mrs. A. W. Meinzer, Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. A. P. Stevenson and Mrs. J. B. Shaw.

Mrs. Hudson, Leader Torrance Woman's Club

Closing a year which might well be the envy of any similar group of women, Torrance Woman's Club met for their last luncheon of the club year. Mrs. W. J. Neelands, who has wielded the gavel for the past two years, turned it over to Mrs. O. W. Hudson, who was installed as club president by Mrs. C. F. Van De Water, past president of Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs. Other officers installed at this time were Mrs. A. W. Johnson, first vice president and program chairman; Mrs. A. A. Strom, third vice president and hostess chairman; Mrs. Raymond Rogers, recording secretary; Mrs. W. J. Neelands, federation secretary; Mrs. Jack Barrington, first director and child welfare chairman; Mrs. Al Price, second director and luncheon chairman; Mrs. Harry Higgins, ways and means chairman. The following chairmen were appointed by the new president, Mrs. F. L. Parks, legislation; Mrs. George Worcester, Americanism; Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, decorations; Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, hospitality; Mrs. J. W. Quigley, home economics; Mrs. J. C. Merriam, art and gardens; Mrs. E. M. Merriam, sunshine; Mrs. Lon Ralston, motion pictures; Mrs. J. H. Crumrine, California landmarks and history; Mrs. G. G. Elder and Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler, Bible study; Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, reservations; Mrs. W. N. Brooks, public health; Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, press; Mrs. Caroline Collins, community service.

Mrs. Van De Water gave a most inspiring talk urging all women to work for the betterment of their community, state and nation. Mr. John William sang a group of two numbers; committee reports were given by the various chairmen. Mrs. Hudson gave an interesting report of the Woman's Club convention at Riverside. Mrs. Neelands was presented with a lovely silver service tray in appreciation of her two years' service as club president.

ATTEND TENTH DISTRICT P. T. A. CONFERENCE

The conference of the Tenth District Parent Teachers Association met in Patriotic hall, Los Angeles, at 9:30 this morning. Mrs. J. H. Beverly, third vice president of the district, presided and Mrs. J. K. Lytle, retiring president, installed the new officers. Mrs. L. S. Rounsavelle is the new president. Mrs. Lytle gave an outlined report of her four-year presidency and Mrs. Rounsavelle gave high lights of the state convention.

Mrs. J. O. Bishop, president of the Elementary Parent Teachers group, and Mrs. Chas. Arzilli, president of Fern avenue, attended the conference.

Royal Neighbors Grand Finale At Long Beach Friday

Royal Neighbors of the district will meet at Long Beach tomorrow evening, June 8, to take part in the "grand finale" which marks the close of the big membership drive which has been going on over a period of several months. The drivers have been divided into two camps, the Army and the Navy, and a large number of new members have resulted from their concerted efforts.

The "grand finale," which will be held in Recreation Park, will feature a "nigger minstrel" show, in which each lodge will be represented in the huge chorus, and other talented members of the lodges will present short skits.

STUDIO PARTY NEXT WEEK

The National Business and Professional Women of Torrance will meet next Tuesday evening, June 12, for their annual party at Madame Teala Billini's studio in Los Angeles. Madame Billini, who arranges the programs for these delightful affairs, has invited a number of her professional friends to entertain and the program this year will eclipse anything that has been offered in the past. Mae Murray, teacher of dancing, with some of her talented pupils; Miss Bunola Kay, radio artist, and others, will be seen and heard.

President Beatrice Hughes appointed Addie Montague as chairman of arrangements for refreshments and transportation. Members will meet at the Nurses Home, 1422 Cota avenue, at 7 o'clock for transportation to the studio.

The club elected delegates to attend the meeting of the district to be held at Long Beach next Saturday and Sunday, where an interesting session will be held. New officers elected at Hermosa Beach in April are to be installed.
