Zamperini Will Re-Enter U.S.C.

mentators have released a large amount of speculation that Zamperini "was through with U.S.C." and would enter the ranks of professional runners. All this is now completely discounted in view of the Torrance flash's letter to his parents.

He had been urged to compete in a special four-man mile relay with Fenske, Glenn Cunningham and Gene Venzke in Madison Square Garden March 2 and enter the Knights of Columbus meet in New York March 9. During his eastern invasion, Zamperini has run the indoor mile in 4m. 7.9s. This excellent time is only five-tenths of a second more than Fenske's best mark this season.
