War Nurse Rally Set for June 3

Because the Army and Navy need nurses and because the health front must be maintained through community cooperation, leaders of military and naval units, clubwomen, civic leaders and Red Cross nursing service representatives are welding forces in a war nurses recruiting rally. This will be held at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, June 3 in Bovard auditorium on the U. S.C. campus.

To bring the seriousness of the nursing crisis to entire Southern California, civilian and military units are working on the program. It was pointed out today that the Army and Navy corps need 36,000 recruits; that 100,000 volunteer nurse's aides must be trained by the Red Cross to assist in civilian hospitals and military institutions; that every American home must have a home nursing-trained person if the epidemic that accompanied World War I is to be thwarted.

First Aid Class Arranged Here

Beginning next Tuesday night, June 1, a Standard first aid class will be conducted in the city hall courtroom at 7 p.m., by Leonard Babcock. The need for first aid in the home and on the highway is increasing, according to Casper Clemmer, adjutant of the first aid corps here, because "of a shortage of available civilian medical personnel."

Competent first aid treatment saves lives in many cases, he pointed out. The Red Cross training program calls for a "first aider in every home" and Torrance should be one of the first cities to reach this goal, Clemmer said.

Motorists Reminded of Deadlines for Tire Inspections

Motorists flying "C" gasoline rationing stickers on their windshields this week are reminded that the next periodic tire inspection for this group must be completed by May 31. An important part of the nationwide gasoline rationing program, the tire inspection must be carried out before rationing boards will approve application for renewal of the gas-rationing coupons.

Holders of "A" books have until Sept. 30 for their second tire inspection of 1943, while "B" holders must have their tires checked again by June 30.
