Kettler Kapers

By TEO CUNNINGHAM, Lomita 232-J

A party that was a nice gesture of friendship and quite hilarious at times, was the baby shower that was hostessed by Mrs. Maxine Coffey, Mrs. Mary Tidland and Mrs. Margaret Preder honoring Mrs. Connie DeLeo and Mrs. Doris Hamm, at the Coffey home on Reynosa Dr. last week. What made the party so much fun was the fact that the words "I," "me" and "mine" were tabu and anyone caught saying them had to forfeit a bean. Mrs. Anne Jolly won the prize for having acquired the most beans at the end of the evening. The two guests of honor wore yellow and green crepe paper baby bonnets, while the others wore varicolored bibs with nursery rhymes printed on them. Appropriate baby shower games were played with Mrs. Mac Weber and Mrs. Theda White capturing the prizes. The color scheme was carried out in pastel green and yellow, even to the little booties of frosting adorning the cake, which also had a bevy of white storks on it. Attending were 22 of Connie's and Doris' friends and co-workers at Newberry's to show their regard and to present gifts to the mothers-to-be.

* * *

Speaking of investitures, Maureen Geraghty of Kathy Way was invested as a Tenderfoot into Troop 610 last Wednesday night. The ceremony took place at Torrance Park, where the troop held a cook-out that evening, which preceded the investiture.

* * *

Guess who left this morning for Blue Jay? None other than Gordon and Virginia Jones, who along with offspring Gordie and Diane will spend the next four days doing nothing but loafing . . . Lucky! Well, here's hoping they have a nice time, and come back rested.

* * *

We Cunninghams put on our best bibs last Saturday night and accompanied Lyle and Evelyn O'Hora and Stan and Billy Heiman to Long Beach for dinner . . . the occasion was the installation of officers of the Harbor Voiture 1262 of the 40 and 8.

* * *

Here and there: The Dick Clutter family packed a picnic lunch last Friday and took off for the day, going out Lake Elsinore way and coming home by way of San Juan Capistrano . . . Sorry to hear that Jack Fees had all four hub caps stolen off his car . . . one is bad enough, but all four! . . . Chuck and Marie Manning and daughter Carol trekked to San Diego a week ago last week-end to visit with cousins Joe and Loenard Uribe . . . also going San Diego way, but to visit the zoo at Balboa Park, were Jim and Madelyn Wayte with children Joyce, Jack and Mary Rose . . . visiting the zoo closer home at Griffith Park last week were Ginny Jones and her "kiddies" Gordie and Diane . . . heard that Mrs. Ruth Buethe is in Washington . . . Ted, Ione and Margaret Aarupe are roughing it in Sequoia for a week . . . the Joe Lucas family are back from their trip to Martin's Ferry, Ohio and report a very good time . . . sorry to hear that the Nashes' vacation was cut short by Don's illness . . . birthday wishes this week go to Howard Black of 234th St. and Sheryl Youngs of Reynosa Dr., whose natal dates are today, the 24th . . . a belated greeting to Robert Batty, whose birthday slipped by on the 12th; guess there was still too much excitement about Amy Clare.

Aged Man Salvages Life on Summer Theater

"Salvage," an original teleplay by Joseph Cochran about an aging man who thinks his usefulness to society is almost at an end, is the poignant offering on "Summer Theater" Sunday at 7:30 p. m. on Channel 4. When the organization for which he has worked faithfully for many years is absorbed by a larger one, a 63-year-old man is retired two years ahead of schedule.

ICE CUBE KNOCKS WOMAN COLD

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 27—Miss E. A. Esslinger was walking down the street when an ice cube was playfully tossed from the window of Mr. Frenek's home. It hit her squarely on the head and knocked her colder than an ice cube. At the hospital they treated her with—an ice pack.

After Miss Esslinger collected her wits, she collected $4,500 from the property owner in what you might call "Cold cash." Mr. Frenock says he won't throw another ice cube until he gets liability insurance. W. E. Bowen at 1327 Post Ave., Torrance 215.

Masquerade Party Begins Monday

Peter Donald, comedian; Ilka Chase, novelist; ex-Ambassador John S. Young and former screen star Madge Evans will form a panel of wit and distinction with Bud Collyer as moderator on the new program, "Masquerade Party," starting on Channel 4 Monday at 8 p. m. and continuing thereafter on alternate Mondays.

In addition to the famous figures on the panel, the program will feature other outstanding personalities who will come to the "party" disguised to resemble characters connected with their personal lives or careers.

Each show will spotlight a couple to whom the "gag rule" will apply. A member of the couple will be a celebrity and he or she will be forced to remain silent while the other answers the panelists' questions to establish the celebrity's identity.

CONSTIPATED?
Constipation is not a disease in itself, but produces many symptoms of other disturbances. Constipation may produce abdominal pain, nausea, loss of appetite, coated tongue, flushing of skin, nervousness, etc. When toxic matter is retained in the bowel for too long a period, poisons may be absorbed into the bloodstream, causing the above symptoms.
Come into my office for internal baths, which thoroughly cleanse the colon of poisonous waste matter. Call or come in for appointment. Free consultation. No obligation.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.

VOTE!

If you owned stock in a 100 billion dollar Corporation, would you cast that ballot? I'm sure you would. Your vote, here could decide this election. VOTE!

Hillings and Squires, incumbent and aspirant, were contending for a seat in Congress; 47 votes won the election for Hillings. If 49 people hadn't voted the results would have been different.

Here, an election reaches to the roots of government. You vote for men you've known for years and in whom you have great confidence. You meet them in church, on the street, in their office, in your home; they are neighbors and will do as friends would do. You know their limitations and their abilities, mental capacity and civic mindedness. VOTE for the men you think best able to fill that office. Be a loyal American. VOTE! as your conscious dictates.
