Long Time Local Resident Dies, Services Held

William Sheldon Bush, 87, resident of Torrance for years, died Sunday at his home 1303 Cota Ave., and funeral services were held Wednesday at Stone and Myers Chapel.

Bush, a native of Illinois, was a retired railroad section foreman for Santa Fe Railroad. He was a member of the Torrance chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, and of the Masonic Lodge, No. 315, in Norwalk.

Services were conducted by the Rev. C. M. Northrup of the First Baptist Church and interment followed at Rose Hills Cemetery.

Survivors include a son, Leo J. Bush, of Monterey Park; a daughter, Merrill Allen, of 1303 Cota Ave.; three grandsons, Lt. C. M. Allen, of National City; J. A. Allen, of San Carlos, and Dr. Jay S. Bush, of Indio; and four great-grandchildren, Virginia, Marilyn and Katherine Mary Allen, and Lester Bush.

Rites Held for John C. Costello

Last rites were held Wednesday at the Church of the Nativity for John Climaco Costello, 89, who lived with his son, Louis, at 20602 S. Normandie Ave. He died Saturday at Harbor General Hospital.

Stone and Myers Mortuary handled arrangements for the funeral services, which were conducted by the Rev. P. J. McGuinness of Nativity Church. Interment followed at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Rosary for the deceased was recited Tuesday evening at Stone and Myers Chapel. Besides his son, Costello leaves three daughters, Mrs. Josephine Stevens, of 20351 New Hampshire Ave.; Marguerite Courtney, of Davenport, Ia.; and Mrs. R. M. Cooper, of Georgia; and several grandchildren.

Services Slated For Clara Wertz

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow at Stone and Myers Chapel for Clara Wertz, 73, a resident of Torrance for four years, who died Tuesday at her home, 1410 Cota Ave.

The Rev. Eldon Durham of the Lomita Presbyterian Church, will officiate at the services and interment will follow at Inglewood Park Cemetery.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Wertz is survived by three daughters, Irene Wertz, of Torrance, Celia Morrissey and Mary Ellen Dean, of Cleveland, Ohio; two sons, J. D. Wertz of Torrance and Robert Wertz of Inglewood; a sister, Mrs. Molly Wertz, of Greenville, Pa.; and a brother, Dr. Frank Wilson, also of Pennsylvania.

Topic of Church Discussion Told

"How Can We Live a Christian Life All Week?" will be the topic of a discussion to be held tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church Question's Class monthly potluck supper, to be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reid.

Members of the panel who will open the discussion include Lew Broatch, Harlow Hanlon, Emil Settlage, Ralph King, Marvin Hiebert and Paul Ogle. Stan Roberts, teacher of the class, will act as moderator.

Additional information concerning the Questors, an adult class, can be obtained by calling Kathy and Lew Broatch, presidents, at FA 8-7310.

Hold Services For Publisher

Services were held Monday at Stone and Myers Chapel for Roy Leslie Johnston, 64, retired newspaper publisher, who died Thursday at Torrance Memorial Hospital.

The Rev. John Taylor of the First Methodist Church conducted the rites and cremation followed at Inglewood crematory.

Johnston is survived by his widow, Mrs. May Johnston, of 415 E. Carson St.; four sisters, Cora Hotchkiss, of Garden Grove; Nellie Hudson, of Iowa; Ida Stafford, of Seattle, and Beryl Johnston of South Dakota; and several nephews, including Kenneth Kelly, of Long Beach. Johnston was a native of Iowa.
