Harriet Julia Blanke

Funeral services will be held in Burlington, Wisc., for Harriet Julia Blanke, 72, who died here Jan. 10. Mrs. Blanke was the mother of Mrs. Estelle Lattemer, former Torrance resident who has just returned from Arabia with her family.

Mrs. Blake suffered a fractured hip in an accident last October and never fully recovered from the injury.

She leaves her husband, Frank Blanke of Long Beach, and another daughter, Mrs. Larraine Evert of Lake Bluff, Ill.

Halverson-Leavell Mortuary handled arrangements here.

Evans Diltz Clark

Funeral services will be held here Saturday at 11 a.m. for Evans Diltz Clark, 60, a machinist at the National Supply Co. plant for 13 years, who died Tuesday. Services will be conducted by the Redondo Beach Elks Lodge in the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel.

A native of South Dakota, Mr. Clark was a member of the Redondo Elks and the Employees Club of National Supply.

He is survived by a brother, Kenneth Clark of Los Angeles, and two sisters, Miss Dorothy E. Clark of La Jolla and Mrs. Theresa E. Brooks of Pasadena. Four nieces and nephews also survive him.

Cremation at Pacific Coast Crematory will follow Saturday's final rites.

Jess C. Culbert

Requim Mass will be celebrated in Santa Barbar today for Jesse C. Culbert, 57, a fire inspector at the Terminal Island Naval Base and Torrance resident for the past 12 years. Mr. Culbert, who lived at 22120 Caroldale, died at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Rosary was recited at Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel last evening by Rev. P. J. McGuiness of the Nativity Catholic Church.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Culbert was a native of Carter City, Tenn.

He is survived by his widow, Betty, and two sons, Edward and Billy, and one daughter, Linda.

Interment will be made in Santa Barbara.

Hahn Asks Use of Pools

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn and Milton Arthur, chairman of the Los Angeles County Parks and Recreation Commission, met yesterday with Los Angeles City Superintendent of Schools Claude Reeves to work out a program whereby school children will be permitted to use county swimming pools all year 'round for swimming instruction and to meet recreational needs.

Hahn said he believes that since the taxpayers pay city, county, and school taxes, swimming pools that are generally just open in the summer time should be used all year long on afternoons and week ends throughout the year.
