TORRANCE HERALD

Sports

The Junior Circuit

During the past two weeks of play, the North Torrance Little League has had a rash of home runs. Players who clouted long ones for the first time were Chris Gresham, Don Fleps, Kent Swain, Jeff Bell, Steve Van Camp, Bob Williams, Tommy Tyler and Norman Wagner.

Leading the league with the top number of home runs, is Carey Hubert of the Bruins, with a whopping 11 to his credit. Hubert is helping to keep his team in first place as the Bruins lead the league with a 14-2 record.

Charles Thorne pitched the title winning game last Tuesday for the American League Giants, downing the Dodgers, 3-1. Thorne allowed only three hits in a tremendous exhibition of pitching control. Erv Palica, the Giants' hitting sensation, once again came through accounting for three of the six hits off the offerings of Charles Berry.

Palica needed help from Greg Eberle, though, when the Giants met the second place Pirates. Eberle and Larry Fujimoto came through with flying colors, collecting three hits each. The Giants won out, 9-6, but not before Dick McGuire, Tom Peuser and Jeff Nicholson made things more difficult by slamming three hits.

Leading in the sixth and final inning, Torrance National Little League Stars seemingly had the game on ice with a 14-3 score. But the Cardinals had other ideas.

In one of the most spectacular comebacks ever staged around here, Rodney White clouted a home run for the Cards. Then the sky fell in for the Stars—the Cardinals added insult to injury, scoring at will. When the inning finally was over, the score was: Stars 14—Cardinals 17.

Don Coil and Harry Brown followed White with homers, ably assisted by the hitting of Jim Wilson, Mike Sirrico and Allan D'Ornellas. Jason Castillo, Dexter Patrick and Danny Carasco were the big guns for the Stars.

Steve Waters of the Braves smashed his 10th home run of the season recently as the Braves went on to defeat the Yankees, 2-0.

In the South Bay League, the Giants and Dodgers dominated the scene as the Indians and Braves went down to defeat. The Cardinals tied the Yankees 6-6 and a re-match was slated.

Pacific Coast Little League's Beavers clobbered the Padres in a 15-3 scoring spree. Bill Geisel and Jim Anderson accounted for homers with the winning Beavers. Glen Wyer's long hit failed to push his team into the winner's spot.

In the league standings the Seals are way out in front, boasting a 6-0 record for the second half of the season.

Pacific Coast members are planning a pancake breakfast Saturday at Clark's Market, 8-11 a.m.

The market is at Highway 101 and Hawthorne Blvd. and proceeds will be used by the league.

The Red Sox are leading in the Pacific American Babe Ruth League, followed by the Pilots. The Indians trail in third place, followed by the Senators, Athletics, Orioles, Tigers and Yankees.

Three Guns Stolen From Local House

Alvin Larson, 17990 Faysmith Ave., reported to Torrance police someone had entered his home and stolen three guns.

Missing was a .22 automatic rifle, a 20-gauge shotgun, and a .22 single shot rifle.

Bay-Pioneer League Footballers Report to Start Practice Drills

Ray Grieshaber, fullback from North High, was one of 25 gridiron stars who reported for uniforms in preparation for the Optimist All-Star football game July 20 at El Camino.

The pigskin artists, all from Pioneer League schools, were suited up Friday and will report for twice daily practice starting Monday at Mira Costa High School.

Pioneer Leaguers will be coached by Don Reed of Hollywood Riviera, former mentor at Culver City, who will be coaching at Long Beach State this year. Reed will be assisted by Howard Roop who will become head coach at Culver City.

Missing from the all-star lineup was Mike Livesay, three-year letterman from Culver City. The sensational young halfback was one of the few stars who failed to report.

The opposing Bay Leaguers will sign in tomorrow for uniforms before reporting to Redondo High School for two weeks of drill.

Coach Bob Cardona, assisted by Chuck Waters and Vince McCullough, will field a roster of top athletes including three gridiron greats from Torrance.

Expected to show up tomorrow are Tom Brown, end; John Emory, fullback, and Bill Montgomery, guard.

Basebags Move Into Win Column for First Time

There were only three games played last week in the Girls' Softball League.

The first one, between the Basebags and the Hamburgers, saw the Basebags "bag" their first win of the young season, 23 to 12. The winning pitcher was Darlene Ronning, who gave up 12 hits, while her teammates were collecting 17. The big hitters for the Basebags were Rosie Theodosia, Joyce Ewart and Diana Mitchell, who each hit safely three times. For the Hamburgers, Vi Lucero banged out a home run in the third inning with two on.

The Sureshots lost 20 to 9 to the Hotshots in the second game. Rosie Swartz was the winning pitcher, although she had some help from Louann Dean in the fourth inning. Marlene Hanson, the Hotshots' catcher, hit four singles in four appearances at bat and scored three runs. Betty Rogers, playing third base for the Hotshots, hit three for four, drew one walk, and scored four runs. The Hotshots pulled the only double play of the game when their right fielder, Frances Reid, caught a fly ball, then threw to first base, doubling off the runner there.

The third game saw two undefeated teams, the Bruins and the Esabs, battling neck and neck for five innings. At the end of that time the Esabs were two runs ahead, 10 to 10. The Bruins outhit the Esabs, 10 to 13, but left five runners on base, while the Esabs left only three stranded. Judy Clements, shortstop and manager of the Esabs, continued her batting record of hitting a home run in each game so far. She hit her last one to lead off the third inning. Carla Babb was the winning pitcher. Marsha Post, left fielder for the Bruins; and Dorothy Searles, first baseman, both homered with no one on. These two teams meet again later in the summer for another rematch battle. The game between the K Kids and the Duffers will be played Monday in Redondo at 7 p.m.

GRIDIRON FIREWORKS EXPECTED

Football fireworks officially explode July 20 when 50 ace gridiron graduates of the state of California's high school class of '57 launch training for the Sixth Annual Shrine North-South Classic to be fought in the Los Angeles Coliseum July 31.

North's contingent, seeking its second straight victory, will assemble at Whittier College; South pitches tents at Pepperdine.

Both aggregations are under the tutelage of co-coaches whose teams last fall swept through 39 foes with only one setback; both arrays sparkle with spectacular performers, 19 of whom gained All-American mention.

Bubbles Budges Bulk By Burping

Bubbles, Marineland's 1600-pound lady black pilot whale, fooled the experts and with a mighty burp disproved their fancy theories about whale lovesickness and the like.

Languid and off her feed for more than a month, the fish and mammal specialists last week concluded Bubbles must be pining for a whalemate. The truth is that the mighty whale had the biggest tummy ache in the world.

Bubbles proved this point Thursday when, after a few preliminary coughs, she gave a hefty burp, and up came a life ring, 16 inches in diameter.

The whale had been taught to retrieve the life ring just as a dog does.

William F. Monahan, vice president and general manager of Marineland, said he and the whale's trainers knew the life ring disappeared more than a month ago, but of course no one suspected that Bubbles had mistaken it for a king-sized doughnut.

Biscailuz to Lead Parade At Ball Game

Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz of Los Angeles will be grand marshal at the Optimist all-star high school football pre-game activities at El Camino Stadium, July 20.

Biscailuz' duties at the football game include crowning of two queens (one from each of the Bay League and Pioneer League) and waving of the baton to denote kickoff time.

Dr. Sherwood Van Dyke, in charge of pre-game and halftime activities, also reports that two or three bands, several drill teams and complete pep and cheer leading groups will be on hand to enliven the football game.

Tickets for the Charity football game went on sale this week at several locations throughout the Southwest area.

The football game, which will feature graduated stars of the Bay League against the Pioneer League, together with pre-game and halftime entertainment, will benefit the Optimist Home for Boys in Los Angeles.

'Rainmaker' Concluding Redondo Run

Hampton Players' current production, "The Rainmaker," will be concluded on Friday and Saturday night this weekend at the group's little theater, 129 S. Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach.

The play is staged in a horseshoe theater, the only one in the area. "The theater in the round" gives the audience the feeling of being part of the play itself.

Jack Drake is making his debut with Hampton Players in the role of Bill Starbuck, "The Rainmaker." He previously appeared in New York stock, both as actor and director.

by Ann Sutton and her father H. C., is played by James Black, and her two brothers, Noah and Jimmy, are portrayed by Duane Ryan and Charles Slater.

House Record Broken By Bob Prince

Bob Prince broke the house record at Bowl-O-Drome Lanes in Torrance last week as he turned in a scorching 258-278-267 series for a total score of 803.

Prince also recorded a 237-228-267 series scoring 732—making him one of the Lane's most consistently outstanding bowlers.

Bowl-O-Drome officials announce that a ladies' handicap trio got under way Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., with 40 bowlers already signed up, the women will be well represented.

B. Ellsworth of the Palos Verdes Golf Club summer bowling league turned in a high score of 547 to lead his teammates, The Slicers. The Putters, however, continued to hold a slight edge in the league keeping one game ahead of The Drivers.
