PINEAPPLE CHEESE ROLLS
 1 loaf (1 lb.) Bridgford frozen ready to bake bread
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 tablespoons sugar
 2 teaspoon flour
 1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese, softened
 1 egg yolk
 1/4 teaspoon vanilla
 1/4 teaspoon brandy
 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 1/3 cup pineapple or your favorite jam

Remove frozen loaf from the package and let soften at room temperature until easy to shape with the hands (1 to 2 hrs.). Cut loaf into quarters. Then cut each quarter into 4 pieces to make a total of 16. Make a rope of each piece about 10 inches long. Mix together 1/2 cup sugar and cinnamon. Roll and press ropes in cinnamon mixture until they are completely covered and the mixture is used. Shape each rope into a coil on a greased baking sheet.

Mix together 2 tablespoons sugar and 2 teaspoons flour. Add remaining ingredients except jam. Place a rounded teaspoon of mixture in the center of each roll. Spoon 1 teaspoon of jam in the center of cheese mixture. Let rolls rise in a warm place (90 Degrees F. to 150 Degrees F.) until doubled. Bake 375 Degrees F. about 15 minutes. Cool on rack. ## FOR OUTDOOR TREAT Barbecued Beef Tops for Taste

 "Back in Your Own Backyard." Is this a nostalgic, lingering melody? Or do you shrug your shoulders, turn your back, and say, "You can have it?"

Your own backyard is great for entertaining all year-round hospitality so typical in Southern California. And, of course, these informal get-togethers are more fun with modern gas appliances—barbecues, gas lights, patio heaters and pool heaters.

Neighbors, friends and relatives will all see how easy it is for you to say, "Come over for an outdoor barbecue" whether it is for two or twenty-two.

They'll realize that no fancy footwork is involved when your modern gas grill takes over cooking. Both host and hostess can enjoy talking with their guests since gas grills need only minutes to preheat the single layer of ceramic coils.

Ten minutes later those luscious steaks start sizzling. WHEN TEENAGERS entertain, guests are intrigued with the idea of cooking their own juicy hamburgers or hot dogs. With only a twist of the wrist young chefs are in control of the cooking—the gas flame goes up, down, or off to suit the moment's need.

Swimming parties can be year-round events. It's a delightful way for young folks to entertain at home. Pool fun is assured with an automatic gas swimming pool heater. And don't forget the gas dryer. Its job is to send guests home with dry swim suits.

Gaslights add charm and more enjoyment to every occasion. Their soft glow is unattractive to bothersome insects, and they extend entertaining time. On cool California evenings patio heaters add comfort.

TEMPERATURE changes can be disregarded because infrared heaters make it easy to "dial" the outdoor temperature. This takes the uncertainty out of planning outdoor parties. And with the new gas connectors, portable patio heaters may be moved to any desired area.

What about cleaning the barbecue after the guests go home? You merely turn on the gas flame and the ceramic briquettes clean themselves. They're ready to use again. No ashes, no replacing.

Here's a favorite recipe you will want to try on your gas grill. This modest-priced cut of beef is made tender by marinating. It's aromatic while cooking, and has a wonderful barbecued flavor. File Savory Barbecued Beef Roast to serve over and over again, for family and guests.

SAVORY BARBECUED BEEF ROAST
 2 cloves garlic, minced
 2 Tbsp. salad oil
 1/4 tsp. dry mustard
 1 Tbsp. soy sauce
 1/2 tsp. rosemary, crushed
 1/2 C. wine vinegar
 1 Tbsp. Worcestershire
 2 Tbsp. catsup
 1 round-bone or chuck roast, 2 1/2 to 3-lb. thick

Saute garlic in oil. (Do not let it brown.) Mix in remaining ingredients for marinade. Pour over meat in flat dish. Cover and marinate in refrigerator 24 to 48 hours. Turn meat several times.

Place roast on preheated grill. Barbecue with full flame 5 minutes; reduce flame to low and broil 15 to 20 minutes longer. Turn to second side and continue broiling about 20 minutes longer, or until roast is browned and done as desired.

Baste with remaining marinade occasionally during broiling.

To serve, cut thin slices diagonally across the grain. Makes about 8 servings.

Democrats Back Nava, Bond Issue

The 68th Assembly District Democratic Council has endorsed Dr. Julian Nava for Office No. 3 of the Los Angeles City Board of Education and urged approval of a Los Angeles City library bond issue.

Balloting is scheduled May 30, DiBiasi said.

Man Draws Jail Term

A Torrance youth has been sentenced to a year in the county jail and placed on two years probation in Superior Court.

Richard N. Mata, 19, of 18401 Ashley Ave., was arrested March 8 by Torrance police in connection with the theft of automobile supplies from a North Torrance service station.

Judge Bernard Lawler sentenced Mata last Friday. Mata had entered a plea of guilty during a municipal court hearing.
