South High PTA

By Mrs. Robert M. Edwards

The first regular Association meeting of South High PTA was well attended with over 200 members who came in spite of rain. Dr. W. B. Magner presented his staff at the business meeting and questions were submitted by the parents for the student panel discussion which is to be held during the March program.

The business meeting was held at Newton Elementary and Mrs. Albert Yacklé read the standing rules and Mrs. Wilbur French presented the budget, both of which were approved. Mrs. Paul Roettger announced that a dessert tea would be held at the Polynesian Restaurant Wednesday, February 26, and urged everyone to buy tickets early. A preview of the Samoan entertainment was provided by two of the Polynesian dancers illustrating the sword dance.

Mrs. Chas. Fischer, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. White, Mrs. Elden Selymeyer and Mrs. C. L. Underwood were elected to the nominating committee and will present their nomination to the members at the March 4 meeting.

Mrs. J. N. Hawkins gave a report on the culmination of the membership enrollment, stating that out of 800 families, 488 persons joined South High PTA in addition to the 177 charter members.

After the business meeting, Dr. Wagner invited the members to a tour of South High School under the guidance of several of the teachers. A thorough explanation of the different classrooms and equipment, as well as of the additional proposed buildings, was given by each teacher.

After the tour, refreshments were served in the Staff room under the direction of Mrs. Robert Schrauben.

During the business meeting preceeding the program Mrs. J. K. Edwins introduced several honored guests present. Mmes. Edward Kemp, director of Education, 33rd district, and from Torrance Council, Mmes. V. B. Terry, financial secretary, C. F. Malone, corresponding secretary, James Oswald, music chairman, Francis Stoeckle, jr. past president. Mrs. Edwins then asked for nominations from the floor for a group to serve as nominating committee. Those elected were Mmes. Charles R. Petersen, Hugh Chadwick, Z. W. Giza, Wm. Deuel, and Chester Black.

Brownie Troops 2127, and 1572, and intermediate troops 164 and 1654 conducted the flag ceremony for the evening.

A coffee hour was held in the ing the meeting. Hostesses were home Economics room, followfourth grade mothers, and Mrs. Fred Carroll, tea chairman.

Halldale Ave. PTA

By Mrs. H. C. Clark

Founder's Day (61st birthday of PTA), was celebrated in the Halldale Avenue School auditorium by the presentation of two honorary life membership pins.

Mrs. Robert Wonders, chairman of the program, gave a brief resume on the progress of Halldale Avenue PTA since its beginning in 1947. First grade students sang 11 melodies under the direction of Ruth Adams, music director.

Past presidents of Halldale were introduced and presented corsages and gifts by Mrs. Robert Wonders. Amanda Wilhelm, principal, gave a brief talk on their accomplishments.

History and meaning of an honorary life membership pin were discussed by Mrs. H. C. Clerk. Mrs. Dallas Rasmussen introduced the honorary life members of Halldale.

Mrs. Fred Schimmel, who for over 10 years has faithfully served Halldale Avenue School and the community, was presented an honorary life membership pin by Mrs. H. C. Clark.

Mrs. F. E. Dye, ways and means chairman, was presented an honorary life membership pin by Mrs. Ed Holloway, herself an honorary life member.

Honored guests were past presidents Mmes. E. M. Bernardin, C. C. DeVore, David Goolsby, E. N. Reese and H. T. Seeman.

Mrs. Walter Tally, Lomita-San Pedro Council president, also was present.

Honorary life members present were Amanda Wilhelm, Lillian Morris, Ruth Adams, Mr. Comstock, Ruth Moeller, David Goolsby, H. T. Seeman, Evelyn Coindaripé, E. M. Barnardin, E. H. Martin, C. C. DeVore, W. H. Harvey, and A E. Schilling

Boy Scout Troop 211

Boy Scout Trop No. 211, sponsored by Howard Wood PTA, enjoyed an outing to the mountains last weekend staying at Uncle Tom's Place at Big Bear, San Bernardino mountains.

Snow sports were enjoyed by fathers and sons on the weekend outing. Those attending were Joe Helphand and son Larry, Gordon S. Jones and son Gordon, Larry Brown and son Steven, William Hixson and son Billy, Scouts Richard Hollins, Dale, Bill and his uncle.

The boys are selling tickets to a pancake breakfast to be held at Sav-Mart market, 234th and Western ave. on March 29 from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. Price is 50c and will feature pancackes, syrup, orange juice, coffee, milk and sausages.

Jack Hoy is chairman and Larry Brown is ticket chairman. This will be the first affair for this Scout troop. Proceeds are needed for purchasing tents and supplies. Contact any Scout in the Howard Wood School area for your ticket.

259th Place PTA

"Now is the time to honor our fathers and founders" was the theme of a recent association night meeting of the 259th Place School PTA.

Many of the fathers and mothers of 259th Place School students participated in a delightful take-off on the TV program "I've Got a Secret," directed by Mrs. William Kepley Jr., founders day chairman. Highlighting the secrets was 'the celebrity," Miss Frances Dastarac, principal, and her dog. Among the guests was Mr. Jack W. Craeger whose secret was "the most neglected father of the 259th Place School."

Adding another bit of humor were the commercials done by Mmes. E. H. Cook, C. R. Chitwood, and B. A. Gardiner and Mr. Ben Gardiner

Past presidents were honored and received gifts presented by Mrs J. M. Craeger, president. Those present were Mmes. Irene Howe, E. L. Gibson, Josephine Marriott, W. M. Schieldmeyer, C. L. Wilson, J. O. Powers, W. E. Zell, R. E. Franin and Palmer Orseth.

Honorary life membership pins were presented to Mrs. William Kepley Jr., and Mr. C. E. Aspittle in special recognition of service to children, by Mrs. Palmer Orseth, honorary life chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Talley attended the meeting and were introduced by Mrs. Craeger. Mrs. Talley is the president of the Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council.

Mr. G. H. Nelson led in the salute to the flag and the inspirational message was given by Mr. C. E. Aspittle. The hosts, Messrs. H. M. Rabjohn and J. F Carroll served pie and coffee to the guests attending the meeting.

Seaside PTA

By Mrs. John Mallery

"Let Us Draw Courage From Our Past" was the theme for the February 25 meeting of the Seaside PTA. Mrs. Clyde Miller president, opened the meeting at 7:30 p.m. with an inspirational by Rev. Gerald Garlied. Lloyd Jones, principal, introduced several new teachers and the new vice-principal, Henry Behrens.

An amusing skit with a Dragnet theme was presented by the following members: Mrs. James Mason, Mrs. Joel Stanley, Mrs. Harry Harter, Henry Behrens, Mrs. R. J. Maag, Mrs. C. T. Reid, Mrs. Gerald Garlid, Mrs. Alex Rosin, Mrs. Frank Burke.

Presentation of the Life Memberships were then made by Mrs. Joel Stanley, Life Membership chairman. Mrs. Paul Roettger, a past president of Seaside PTA, and Richard Naumann, active in boy scouts, were the recipients. Mrs. Harry Harter introduced the past presidents in attendance and an explanation of the Founder's Day gift was given by Mrs. Marren Boggs. The meeting was then adjourned to the homemaking room where a beautiful Founder's day cake was served.

South High PTA

By Mrs. Robert M. Edwards

The March meeting of the South High PTA will be held Tuesday, March 4, at 8 p.m. in Newton Elementary school's cafetorium. It will feature an introduction of the teachers of South High school by Dr. W. B. Wagner.

Mrs. Rex Hayes has programmed a student panel discussion, the top of the panel to be "Outside the Text Book Cover", with the participation of two parents and four students from the South High school.

Parents invited to be on the panel are Mrs. Bradford Davis, mother of a sophomore girl, and Mr. Phillip Shaw, father of a freshman boy. The students will be a boy and a girl from both the freshman and the sophomore classes. Mr. Robert Ellsworth, Student Activities advisor, will be the moderator for the discussion.

The Nominating committee will present their nominations for approval by the association of next year's officers.

Meadow Park PTA

By Mrs. William Lott

Meadow Park PTA held their annual Founders Days meeting recently at the school cafetorium.

W. W. Poser narrated the history and accomplishments of the PTA in its first three years. Beginning with a charter membership of 86, it has grown to over 600.

Functions and benefits of the honorary life membership were presented in a skit by Mrs. M. Morante, Mrs. G. Schindler, and Mrs. M. Reysen.

First award went to Principal H. Farris, the pin presented by Mrs. B. Marshall, chairman of the committee.

A nominating committee composed of Mrs. O. L. Winn, W. Poser, R. B. Culligan, Mrs. R. C. Williams, and Mrs. B. Marshall was elected.

Closing the program, the Mother Singers of Sepulveda and Meadow Park gave several selections, directed by Mrs. V. Craig, music chairman.

Third grade room mothers were hostesses for the evening.
