Minstrel Show to Be Given by Moose Lodge

"Gentlemen Be Seated," described by its promotors as "an old time minstrel show," and featuring talent from throughout the South Bay area, will be presented by the Torrance Moose at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., tomorrow and Saturday at 8 p.m.

Produced and directed by George K. Walston of Wilmington, governer of the San Pedro Moose lodge, the show will star Joe Lucas of Torrance as the interlocutor. In addition to Lucas, Torrance will be represented in the cast of 35 members by Bryan Ware, Douglas Miller and William Ante.

Glenn Hill of Harbor City will perform specialty numbers on the banjo, while Anthony Lamarr of San Pedro will appear as a soloist.

James D. McCune, governer of the Torrance Moose lodge, has announced that tomorrow has been set aside as "family night" for the minstrel show. Saturday night's program, to be followed by a dance, will be for adults only. Tickets for "Gentlemen Be Seated," already presented to "standing-room-only" audiences in San Pedro and at the Plush Horse, may be obtained from members of either the Torrance or San Pedro Moose lodges or at the lodge hall in Torrance.

Music for the minstrel show will be provided by the "Hi-Tones" orchestra, and pianists Virginia Samson and Helen Wiedel.
