Consultant Named for Redondo Renewal Plan

The Redondo Beach Redevelopment Agency has named Albert C. Martin and Associates as consultant for its $40 million beachfront redevelopment project.

The Martin architectural and engineering firm will provide counsel to the redevelopment agency on planning, architectural criteria, and construction documents, and will review the work of developers. Project manager for Martin is Robert Allen Reed, A. I. A.

A 50-acre section of the city is being razed to make room for Redondo Plaza, a planned community of specialty shops, restaurants, high-rise structures, offices, and pedestrian malls.

"Redondo Plaza, integrated with neighboring Fisherman's Wharf, and functioning as an economic unit, will capitalize on the marine environment," Reed said. The redevelopment area also is adjacent to King Harbor, a 1,400-slip, small craft harbor. The area includes the former downtown section of the city.

The development is being financed with the assistance of federal aid from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The Redevelopment Agency expects to offer the project land for sale during 1967.
