

Three Home Runs Hit By 11-Yr. Old

Kurtis Gentle, 11-year-old pitcher for the Tordondo Little League Dodgers, hit three home runs and pitched a 3-hit shutout for a 16-0 win over the Senators Saturday. The Dodgers beat the Yankees Monday night, 7-6, in seven innings. The only home run was hit by Randy Avakian of the Yanks.

Senior Division made its debut in Torrance Saturday when a pair of games was played at Pacific Coast Little League. The Broncos beat the Mustangs, 6-4, and the Pintos went extra innings to edge the Wranglers, 9-8.

The Senior players are graduates of Pacific Coast and Riviera Little Leagues.

In the PCLL majors Eddie Kimbell had 15 strikeouts in a 14-0 shutout of the Angels over the Padres. Ron Leetz tripled with the bases loaded for a 3-0 win for the Seals over the Stars.

They play two kinds of baseball at Torrance American Little League. After the Giants' John Weir hit a game-winning home run to help Frank Baillie win a no-hit, 1-0, victory over the White Sox Sunday, the Tigers came back Monday night to trounce the Dodgers, 36-6. Jeff Austin hit a grand slam home run for the Tigers.

Hitting back to back homers in two games was Rick Traunter of the Tigers. He joined Rick Perkins in pounding the Red Sox, 14-0.

Minor leaguer John Hone of the Yankees hurled a 14-0 no-hitter against the Cubs.

Brad Wutherich of the Riviera Little League Angels ran his home run output to 3 and his team is 3-2 in the major standings.

The entire league has upped its home run production as Gary Farber, Chris Rosenberg, Jim Murphy and Vincent Zorza connected over the weekend.
