

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Anderson

Will the mystery of the "Missing Will" be solved?

Attend Torrance High's first operetta, "Meet California," and find out. Curtain time is 8 p.m., May 12 and 13. Under the direction of Mr. John Spence and Mr. Bobby Webber, the operetta has as its leads Juanita Weiss and Steve Lemler. The villain is played by Rex Thornhill.

TOMORROW is the big day! Those who will make up the 1967 fall semester student council will be decided when Tartars vote for their ASB officers. This semester, 20 students will vie for 11 student council posts. Six candidates will run unopposed. Today, Tartars watched as candidates presented their speeches in a special election aud-cast. Candidates for yell leaders also were presented to the student body.

Applications for class offices are due in the Activities Office May 17. Election aud-cast will be May 25 with balloting scheduled for May 26. Runoffs will be held May 29.

CONGRATULATIONS to Debi Lifton who took first place in the Mannequin Club's bakeoff. Debi took first place with her oatmeal cake. Kathy Slavens, second, for white buttermilk, two-layer, strawberry frosting, and Pat Brown, third, for a variety cake.

ATTENTION ALL girls! It was recently announced that culottes, if full cut, proper length, and skirt-like in appearance are acceptable. Mr. Claude Ragsdale, assistant principal, announced this to the student council early this week.

"BERMUDA DAY" is coming! Girls' League is again sponsoring "Bermuda Day" on Thursday, May 18. Tickets will cost 15 cents for any boy or girl who wants to wear bermudas or capris to school. No sandals or mules will be permitted.

THIS THURSDAY and Friday will be the final test for the Tartar baseball and track teams. Thursday the Varsity baseball team will face Rolling Hills on our home court at 3 p.m. The Normans are presently two games behind the league-leading Tartars. Friday, the track team travels to Rolling Hills for the CIF prelims. Good luck, boys. Later...
