

ELEVEN BASEBALL PLAYERS HONORED

By HENRY BURKE
Press-Herald Sports Editor

Eleven players have been named to the Press-Herald All-Torrance baseball team. The procedure for selecting athletes for this series has been to stay within the realm of 'one team' and base selections on the actual positions played by the candidates as closely as possible.

The outfield is made up of Rich Gonzales who played left field for North, Danny Pritchett of Bishop Montgomery and Jeff Wang of South High, Both played centerfield.

The infield is dominated by Bishop Montgomery which has Chuck Bongard, third base; Danny Graham, shortstop; and Skip Jarvis, second base.

Rich Perez of Montgomery is the left handed pitcher and Bart Johnson of Torrance is the right hander.

Outstanding catchers are unique, but among the five high schools in Torrance this year were three catchers most worthy of recognition on an all-star team. They are Fred Kendall of Torrance, Nelson Straley of Bishop Montgomery and Mike Barnes of North High. Inasmuch as Barnes alternated at first base after suffering an injured hand during the season, he is accepted as the All-City first baseman. Straley, Kendall and Barnes have been the No. 1 varsity receivers for their alma maters since their sophomore years and are strong batters.

No "player of the year" was named in conjunction with the All-Torrance team. At least five of the players would have had to be considered.
