

Janis Seamon Becomes Bride of R. L. White

St. Peter E. Lutheran Church in Santa Ana was the setting on June 10 for an evening wedding, in which Miss Janis Seamon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Seamon, 18925 Wilton Pl., Torrance, exchanged marriage vows with Ronald L. White. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John L. White of Santa Ana.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a white peau de soie gown fashioned with a beaded lace empire bodice and fingertip lace sleeves. A beaded lace cathedral train was attached at the back waistline. Her silk illusion bridal veil cascaded from a white floral satin flower and she carried a white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Marilyn Bessey, in mint green and carrying yellow daisies, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids, in buttercup yellow gowns, were Misses Kathie Ditchey, Joanne Olson and Mrs. Jun D'Onofrio. Jeanine Saylor was flower girl.

James White performed the best man duties for his brother and the 300 guests were seated by Dennis White, another brother, Richard Jensen, Eric Schaffer, Richard Lang, Fred Munich and Robert Larson.

Pastor Ole Winter of the Santa Ana Church and Pastor William Roleder of the Torrance Lutheran Church officiated at the marriage. Miss Sandra Abelseh, soloist, was accompanied by Howard Sonstegaard, organist.

A church reception followed the wedding and the honeymoon was spent in Carmel and at Lake Tahoe. The bride, a 1964 North High graduate, attended Lutheran College.

Her husband, a graduate of Santa Ana High school and California Lutheran College, attends Wartburg Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa. The couple will spend the summer in Santa Ana and in the fall, Mr. White will begin a one-year internship in Sydney, Montana.
