

Jaycees, Jaycettes Plan Joint

Installation Dinner-Event

Invitations are in the mail for the Installation Dinner-Dance of the Torrance Jaycettes to be held Saturday, July 8. The ceremonies will follow an 8 p.m. dinner at the Tasman Sea Restaurant in San Pedro.

Installation officer for the formal occasion will be Mrs. Ronald Davis. Decorations will be under the direction of Mrs. Marty Lewis. A band will provide dance music for the Jaycettes, and their husbands, the Jaycees, who will also install their new officers at the dinner dance.

A gift of appreciation will be presented by the Jaycettes to Mrs. Harold Lindborg, retiring president.

Mrs. James Hussey will assume the presidency for the club year 1967-68. Serving with her will be Mmes. Ralph Grippo, first vice president; Mike Zappitelli, second vice president; Jim Clauson, recording secretary; Leon Taylor, corresponding secretary; and Harry Morrow, treasurer.

Directors to be installed are Mmes. Robert Vroman, Douglas Hedde, Ronald Davis and Harold Lindborg.

Chairmen appointed for the coming year are Mmes. Phil Sheaffer, social; Bill Ritchie, uniforms; Bob Long, yearbook; Don Woodward, prizes; Chuck Dishon, historian and parliamentarian; Dempsey Morris, hospitality; Dick Lujan, supply; Dick Spain, decorations; Bill Ritchie, educational council of Torrance; and Marty Lewis, publicity.

CLEARING THE DECK FOR THE NEW YEAR

New officers of the Jaycettes, who will be installed at a dinner dance next Saturday evening, are making a "clean sweep" to begin their planning for an outstanding 1967-68 club year. In motion are, from left, Mmes. Leon Taylor, corresponding secretary, polishing a table; Ralph Grippo, first vice-president, with carpet sweeper; James Hussey, president, washing the walls, and James Clauson, recording secretary, shining the marble. The joint installation with the Jaycees will be held at the Tasman Seas. (Press-Herald Photo)

SUMMERTIME - AND THE LIVIN' IS EASY

All new residents of the Torrance area are invited by the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club to attend an old-fashioned family picnic at Paradise Park on Thursday, July 13, beginning at 1 p.m. A picnic lunch of fried chicken with all the trimmings will be available. Games and fellowship will spark the agenda and there will be supervision for the small fry. In anticipation of the event, club members and their children visit the park, from bottom of ladder, Mmes. Stephen Butler, Tammy 7, Doug Hall, 6, and Janet Butler 8, while Mrs. Jan Kobrys holds three-year-old Sabrina, enjoying a cookie. (Press-Herald Photo)

Married 50 Years

MR., MRS. LLOYD WARTHAN ... Reach Golden Day

Reception to Honor Long-Time Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Warthan, 650 Border Ave., will be honored at a reception celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, July 9, in Guild Hall at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Ladies Guild of the church and the couple's three children, Mrs. Marjorie Treloar of Long Beach, Mrs. Norma Myers of Torrance, and Major Lloyd C. Warthan, Jr. of Santa Clara are entertaining for the celebrants.

Also on hand for the reception will be the couple's eight grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Warthan, who have been residents of Torrance since 1922, were married at the Calvary Presbyterian Church manse in Riverside July 12, 1917. Before retirement, Mr. Warthan was Supervisor of Factory Sales, National Supply, Division of Armco Steel, Torrance plant.

Mr. Warthan is a member of the Masonic Lodge, American Legion and Petroleum Production Pioneers. He and Mrs. Warthan have been members of the Central Evangelical Church since 1930.

The Guild Hall will be elaborately decorated in the gold and white anniversary theme.

Hours for the reception are 2:30 until 4:30 p.m.

Future Bride

Leedom - Towell

SANDRA LEEDOM

Miss Sandra Leedom will become the bride of Michael Towell next Saturday, July 8 at four o'clock in a ceremony at the South Bay Church of God with Rev. Clifford Tierney officiating.

The announcement of the approaching marriage of her daughter is made today by Mrs. Helen Leedom of Manhattan Beach.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Towell, 17512 Ermanita Ave.

Miss Leedom, a graduate of Mira Costa High school, is attending California State College at Long Beach, majoring in home economics.

Her fiancé, a 1963 North High graduate, is a mathematics major at Long Beach State College.

Bartholomew-Myers Vows Recited

MRS. KENNETH L. MYERS (Crotty Photography)

Miss Karen Jean Bartholomew, on the arm of her brother, William Bartholomew, walked down the aisle of the First Christian Church at 2:30 p.m. on June 17 to plight her marriage promises with Kenneth Leon Myers.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph E. Greenup, 2759 Onrado St. and the late Mr. Charles W. Bartholomew. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Odeil Myers of Pittsford, N. Y., formerly of Torrance.

For her wedding the bride chose an A line empire silk organza floor length gown fashioned with a chapel train trimmed with Chantilly lace. The bodice and sleeves of the gown were enhanced with the Chantilly sprinkled with seed pearls. Her elbow-length illusion veil was held by a silk floral headpiece dotted with pearls. She carried a cascade of white carnations and Talisman roses.

The bridal entourage included Misses Candace Meeker, maid of honor, Margaret Hayes and Judith Bird, bridesmaids. They wore long yellow linen gowns with matching pillbox hats and short veils. Each carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Victor L. Stevens, uncle of the bridegroom, stood as best man and ushers were Dennis Larsen, Robert Shellman, Eric Lundquist, and Terry Goldston.

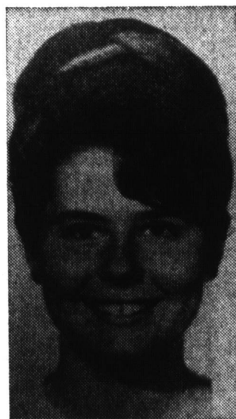

The Rev. H. Milton Sippel officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Eleanor Hanes played the nuptial music. Prior to the ceremony, the bridegroom, a vocal music senior at Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y., sang "Ich Liebe Dich."

The 200 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception in Friendship Hall. Mrs. William Fry was in charge of the bride's book.

The couple spent a weekend in Santa Barbara after which they began their trip to Rochester, N. Y., their new home.

Mrs. Myers, a 1964 graduate of Torrance High School and the Long Beach Business College, was employed by TRW Systems.

Her husband was graduated from West High School in 1963. He will be graduated from the Eastman School of Music in February 1968.

SUSI ULRICH

Susi Ulrich Will Study In Denmark

Miss Susi Ulrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ulrich of Torrance is one of the Whittier College students chosen to attend the University of Copenhagen in Denmark for the fall semester.

Miss Ulrich, a 1965 North High graduate, has just completed her sophomore year at Whittier. She is a member of the Torrance Job's Daughters.

Mrs. Ulrich and her daughter will fly to London on July 7 to tour Europe and to attend the wedding of Miss Emel Oymen, of Turkey, an American Field Service student, who lived with the Ulrich family while attending North High in 1964-65.

Mrs. Ulrich will return in August and Susi will go to Luxembourg to join Whittier College group for their third week study tour and trip to Copenhagen.

CALL FOR PATRONS

"Fractured Follies", a sequel to "Hello Follies", a successful variety show staged last summer by the Auxiliary to the Torrance Hospital, will be produced Oct. 13 and 14 at the Torrance High school under the direction of a New York producer. Proceeds from the show, which features local talent, will go to the Auxiliary's pledge of $100,000 to the new hospital. During the past week, the Patrons Committee has been busy getting out letters requesting patrons. Working on the project are, from left, Mmes. Veronica Gordon, checking a letter; James Wilkes, co-chairman, typing; while Mrs. Eugene Cook, chairman, assists with the wording. (Press-Herald Photo)
