

Sets Scene for Promising Year

Plans for the club year 1967-68 and the selection of chairmen highlighted the meeting of the board of the Torrance Woman's Club held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, club president.

The first event of the new year will be a Membership Tea, Sept. 20, at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia. All members are urged to attend and to bring prospective members. Officers and chairmen will be on hand to explain the social and philanthropic goals of the organization. Mrs. Robert Winship will be in charge of the Membership Tea.

Reviewing the past year when the club donated over $1,200 in scholarships and philanthropies, plans were made to do even more in this area during the coming year. Mrs. J. P. Bay and Mrs. Mark Wright are serving as philanthropy and scholarship chairmen.

Outstanding programs are being planned. At the first regular meeting in October guest will be Clarence Treat, a versatile artist from the original "New Christy Minstrels." Mr. Treat sings American folk songs, plays several instruments and is a comedian.

An evening meeting is planned for March 20 when

Howard Chitjian and Grace Lynne Martin will be stars of "The Musical Carousel."

Local talent from area schools will be featured on other programs and speakers on current issues have been booked.

Ways and means projects for the year will include a Fashion Show, card parties, a Kidnap Breakfast, salad luncheons, Christmas bazaar, and fall and spring rummage sales. Mrs. Bruce Marsh is ways and means chairman. Mrs. R. A. Bingham is in charge of the salad luncheons and Mrs. Earl Miles, rummage sales.

New chairmen for the year are Mmes. H. M. Cahill, art; M. E. Deiner, and E. J. Lenk, bulletin; Ira Avent, California history and landmarks; Gordon Gmur, education and youth; W. C. Norman, Epsilon Sigma Omicron; A. F. R. Ewalt, historian; R. L. Rudy, home-crafts; C. T. Rippey, J. W. Post and Frank Breit, hospitality.

Others are Mmes. Don Wolf, international hostess and projects; Dean L. Sears and Lealie Steigh, junior coordinators; D. Boone Kirks, literature; James Wilkes, song leader; J. P. Bay, philanthropy; Clayton Lilley, press book; Alma Smith, citizenship; Mark Wright, scholarship; Ted Olson, status of women.

Also, Mmes. T. W. Seward, decorations; James Burchett, remembrance; Carl Messmer, president's aide; A. C. Boyd, Jack Egan, assistant reservations; Richard Rankin and Helen Rankin, registrars; A. S. Moore, health and public welfare.

Entertain Houseguests, Make Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Trezise of 3232 Eldorado St. entertained her sister, Mrs. Elton Nesterud and niece, Joyce, of Medilla, Minn., the last week of June. Accompanying the houseguests was Mrs. Richard Sanders, also of Medilla.

Mrs. Trezise and guests motored to Littleton, Colorado where they met her mother, Mrs. Cecil Randall of Geneva, Minn., and visited Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Dale Thomas. The party attended the wedding of the couple's son and daughter-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. George D. Thomas, in Casper, Wyoming, Saturday, July 1.

PICNICKING IN THE PARK

La Primera chapter, Welcome Wagon Alumni is planning its second annual picnic for Sunday July 16 beginning at 12 noon. Each member will bring a picnic basket and games and other activities are planned for the afternoon. Anticipating the event Paula Gardner, 9, and Kim Gardner 7, look into the picnic basket packed by their mother, Mrs. U. F. Gardner, president of La Primera, who is busy filling a thermos for Cheryl Fraleigh 10. (Press-Herald Photo)
