

Auxiliary Awards Scholarships

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JULY 16, 1967

B-1

FIRST CANDY STRIPER AWARD

Margaret Neiswinder, 17, Mira Costa High school graduate and a Candy Stripper at the South Bay Hospital, was selected to receive the first scholarship awarded a Candy Stripper by the Hospital Auxiliary. The recipient, who will enter UC at Santa Barbara, accepts the scholarship from Mrs. R. B. Strawn, scholarship chairman. Margaret is the daughter of the John Neiswinders of Manhattan Beach. (Press-Herald Photo)

ASSIST FUTURE NURSES

Annually the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary presents scholarships to nursing students at El Camino College. Here, Mrs. Joseph Fischer, auxiliary president, presents the scholarships to from left, Dayne Latham, Ann Pilkington, Louise Rose and Mrs. Maxine Soesbe. Serving on the scholarship committee were Mmes. James Raeke, Stuart Skeele, R. B. Strawn, E. J. Arment and Thomas Rupert. (Press-Herald Photo)

MOMENT OF ACHIEVEMENT

Mrs. George Savage, left, president of Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild, Orthopaedic Hospital, presents a $5,000 check to Mrs. J. Herbert Foley, president of the Crippled Children's Guild, at the annual Reports Meeting. The check brought the South Bay Auxiliary's yearly total to $6,120, two-thirds of its $33,000 pledge to furnish a six-crib ward.

Junior Catholic Daughters

Install New Officer Panel

Miss Mary Humting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Humting, was elected to the presidency of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America, Court Our Lady of Victory at a meeting Thursday, July 8 at St. James Hall. Miss Humting succeeds Miss Janice Kleber.

Miss Humting, a Junior at Bishop Montgomery High School has been active in the Junior and Juniors program for eight years. Mary, recently elected and installed as California's first State President, has also served the court as vice-president as well as many offices on the troop level. At school, she is active in the Pep Club, Concordia Auxiliary, G.A.A., Ski Club and will serve on the Election Board in the coming year. She is also a Junior Volunteer at Little Company of Mary Hospital. Mary, along with other delegates, will go to Washington, D.C. on August 16-20 to represent California at their National Convention.

Miss Helen Cerda, archdiocesan junior president, was the installing officer.

Elected and installed to the court offices were Michelle Ste. Marie, vice-president; Susan Shannon, secretary; and Denise Bosnak, court reporter.

Receiving six-year honor pins were Marie Faye Hogan, Helen Cerda, Janice Kleber, Linda Shannon, Becky Wassmuth and Peggy Posey. These girls will end their membership at this time as they reach the age limit of the Junior program which is eighteen.

Mrs. Richard Abshear and Mrs. Rhonald Metro, Junior chairman and vice-chairman respectively, will turn over their jobs to Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie and Mrs. Nicolas Humting. Other members will be named to the Junior Board in the near future.

Miss Humting, after being installed, told the membership that she will give a report on both the State Convention which was held in Chatsworth and the National Convention which is coming up at the next business meeting of the court. She also outlined a tentative plan for the summer which will include a swim party, bake sale, and come-as-you-are breakfast.

Mrs. Arthur Rinaldi, National Regional Consultant of Juniors, gave an inspiring talk to the girls. Among the other guests were state officer, Sharon Becker, vice-president, Teresa Harman, state reporter; Area Chairman Mrs. Pauline Sundquist and Junior Court Guardian Angel Chairman, Mrs. Rose Molinar. Other guests included court presidents and members, as well as parents.

Gifts were presented to the outgoing officers after which refreshments were served.

NEW JUNIOR PRESIDENT

Miss Mary Humting, recently installed president of the Junior CDA, Court Our Lady of Victory, is pictured as she was proclaimed winner in the United States Navy's Handclasp Project staged at Bishop Montgomery High School. Mary is pictured with a doll, one of the many items she gathered to be sent to the children of Vietnam.

Reach Two-Thirds of Goal

Madrecitas Presents Check

A check for $5,000 was presented to the Orthopaedic Hospital at its annual Reports Meeting, by Mrs. George Savage, president of Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of the hospital.

The check brought Las Madrecitas' contribution for the year to $6,120, two-thirds of its pledge, a six-crib ward commitment.

The yearly contribution represents the proceeds from benefits staged by the auxiliary during the past year, including a fashion show, annual Evergreen Ball and Bullock's opening.

"We congratulate the many hard working members of Las Madrecitas and its many generous patrons and donors," stated Mrs. Savage as she discussed accomplishments for the past year and outlined activities planned for the new year which will begin with a gala show of fall's newest fashions slated for September.

Members attending the annual meeting with Mrs. Savage include Mmes. Edward Sokolski, Charles P. McMullens, Hans Hansen and W. G. Reynolds.

Mrs. Savage and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Anderson also attended the 60th Anniversary Tea held at the Orthopaedic Hospital honoring Dr. Lowman, founder of the hospital.

Richard Molonys Entertain Following Son's Baptism

Christopher Edward Molony, born May 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Molony (Carol Cook) of Palos Verdes, was baptized at the St. John Fisher Catholic Church in Palos Verdes on Sunday afternoon, June 24.

Officiating at the baptism was Rev. Thomas Glynn, formerly of Torrance, now assistant at St. John's.

Serving as godmother was Mrs. Michael Enright. Robert Cook stood in by proxy as godfather for John Molony, uncle of the baby, who is touring Europe.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Molony entertained at a christening party at their home where the blue and white motif was used in decorating. The table was centered by a blue and white decorated cake flanked by blue candies in silver holders.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Michael Corright; Robert Cook, uncle and aunt of the baby; James Jackson, fraternal grandparents; Elles Cook, maternal grandparents; Dr. William Molony, Sr., great-grandfather; Mr. Arthur Walther, fraternal great-grandfather; Mrs. Emma Burroughs, maternal great-grandmother; Misses Frances and Johanna Molony, great-great aunts; and Miss Virginia Smith.

Sharing the spotlight was the Molonys' first son, Richard, nineteen months old.

In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cook entertained at dinner at their Torrance home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Molony and sons, Richard and Christopher; Mr. and Mrs. Elles Cook, Mrs. Emma Burroughs; and Mr. and Mrs. James Moon.

Lomita Pre-Schoolers Don Mortar Boards to Graduate

Graduation ceremonies for the two pre-school classes at Lomita Recreation Center were held on June 19 and June 21, complete with traditional mortar board hats and all the trimmings. The two groups recited poems and action songs. A group of four children, Scott White, Betsy Calkins, Sharon Townley and Gayle Foster sang "It's a Grand Old Flag," accompanied by Mrs. Martha Calkins at the piano.

Mrs. Maxine Waters, director of the pre-school classes, introduced the honored guests, Mr. Stan Greene, City Administrator for the City of Lomita, and Mr. Jerry Somers, Parks Director. Mr. Greene assisted in the presentation of graduation certificates to the youngsters.

Graduating on June 19 were David Short, Jerry Moore, Greg Dale, David Kendall, Tim Conlon, Steven Anderson, Wade Poulin, Bill Jennings, John Lynch, Kevin Brown, Ricky Mizuno, Terry Foley, Jo Sheppard, Theresa O'Raidy, Maura Costello, Karen Curtiss, Kathy Wood, Lori McKinley, Janis Eto, Tammy Carswell, Regina Carson, Vikki Turcany, Patty Der, Tammy West, and Keith Stock.

Graduating on June 21 were Ritchey Cook, John Kinter, Kevin McKenzie, Danny Puett, Jason Scott, Scott White, Victor Holmes, Douglas Gwaltney, Michael Tamaki, Christopher Miles, Karen Richardson, Jill Jones, Eileen Murphy, Susan Rucks, Stephanie Ono, Carey Asper, Lori Spring, Sheri

Rilea, Cami Bush, and Carrie Whitehouse.

Following the program, parents, children and friends enjoyed refreshments, provided by the graduation committee whose chairwomen were Mrs. Beverly Short and Mrs. Gene Foster.

Perfect attendance awards were presented to Karen Curtiss, Terry Foley, David Short, Jeanne Johnson, Wade Poulin, Vikki Turcany, Bill Jennings, Janie Eto, Kathy Wood, Jerry Moore, Theresa O'Raidy, Cheryl Alters, Jimmy Ferguson, Kevin McKenzie and Danny Puett.

Also, Sheri Rilea, Carey Asper, Jill Jones, Lori Spring, Richard Cook, Sharon Townley, Susan Rucks, Gayle Foster and Michael Tamaki.

FOLLOW TRADITION

Two classes of pre-schoolers at the Lomita Recreation Center received their diplomas in "true graduation fashion." Accepting their certificate are graduates, from left, Tammy Carswell 4, and David Short 5, looking on as two classmates Scott White, 4, and Gayle Foster 5, receive their diplomas from Mrs. Maxine Waters, director of the pre-school classes. (Press-Herald Photo)