Walteria Congregation Will Greet New Pastor

Members of the Walteria Community Methodist Church, 3646 Newton St., will greet their new pastor at a reception Sunday afternoon at the church.

The new pastor is the Rev. Edgar Neigh, who comes to Torrance in an exchange of pulpits with the Rev. Frank E. Knouse, former pastor at Walteria Community Methodist Church who is now pastor of the Banning Community Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Neigh, born in Vandergrift, Pa., received his bachelor's degree from Washington and Jefferson College and was graduated from the Boston University School of Theology.

After serving for two and a half years in the Army Medical Corps during World War II, the Rev. Mr. Neigh enrolled at Harvard Divinity School for graduate study.

He served as pastor of Methodist Churches in Los Angeles, San Marcos, North Hollywood Village, San Diego, and Calipatria. He is a former president of the San Geronimo Pass Ministerial Association and for the past four years has served as director of hospitals and homes in the Riverside District for the Methodist Church.

He met and married Ruth Hess, a native of Switzerland, during his pastorate at the North Hollywood Village two daughters, Heidi Ruth, 8, and Mari Lou, 6. Mrs. Neigh is an accomplished pianist.

Sunday's reception will be held at the church social hall at 4 p.m.
