nall, and he congratulated Torrance upon being a planned city, and said that that one fact guaranteed a wonderful future for this district. He warmly commended Torrance business men for reorganizing the Chamber of Commerce. "You have only to let the world know what advantages you have, and surprising growth will result," he said. He closed his remarks with a very earnest hope that the campaign would exceed expectations, and pledged his own personal co-operation and assistance in the future to help Torrance achieve the high purpose it has in forming the new Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Hugh Pomeroy, secretary of the Redondo Chamber of Commerce, the next speaker, brought greetings from Redondo and best wishes for the success of the Torrance campaign. He said that the Redondo Chamber was making splendid progress, and that it would be more than glad to have the co-operation of a strong Chamber in Torrance in working for the development of this section of the county.

"This is the day of service," said Mr. Pomeroy. "Every man owes a debt to his community, and that debt can best be paid in service through an up-to-date Chamber of Commerce."

The Masonic quartet, who delighted the audience earlier in the evening with a very pleasing song, closed the meeting with another selection, equally pleasing. The meeting then adjourned to enjoy coffee and doughnuts, provided by the entertainment committee, consisting of Messrs. Joe Stone, chairman, J. H. Fess, J. Isenstein, H. E. Paige and W. C. Von Hagen.

There is more Cataract in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Cataract is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract Medicine, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the eye. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Medicine fails to cure. Send for literature and medicine to E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
