A New Industry

Mr. and Mrs. Eyster have moved to Elgin avenue from San Pedro, where Mr. Eyster is a well known cigar maker. He will continue the work of manufacturing cigars at his home here.

John G. Wilson of Narbonne avenue attended the funeral of his brother, Harry Wilson, who died on Sunday in San Diego, leaving a family of five motherless children, whose ages range from five to sixteen years. The mother died about five years ago in Arizona. The death of Mr. Wilson, who was a former resident of Lomita, was caused by a form of heart disease.

Mr. A. Parineau has sold his property to a Mrs. Smith of San Pedro, but more recently of Mexico. The Parineaus have been visiting friends in Wilmington, Long Beach and Pasadena, and on Wednesday of this week left for an extended stay in San Francisco.

TENNESSEE PICNIC.

All who ever lived in the state are called to meet under the auspices of the Tennessee State Society for a great picnic reunion, all day, Saturday, May 20th, 1922, in Sycamore Grove Park.

There will be a brief program opening about two o'clock, songs, short talks. Prof. M. W. Wilson, president, will preside and have charge of the day.

A PHYSICIAN IN THE CAST

One of life's strange coincidences is that the man who plays the role of chief of the medical staff in "The Glorious Pool," a Goldwyn picture coming to the Torrance Theatre on Saturday, May 20, was actually at one time a well known physician retained by the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad.

He is Dr. John Garthwaite, an M. D. of the screen as well as on it, and his professional training is manifest in his every action before the camera, giving an unusually genuine atmosphere to the hospital scenes in the picture. Helene Chadwick and Richard Dix play the leading roles.
