Shavings

(From the U. T. Co. News)

Foreman Nidy and Harry Cushman have been for a month waiting for the trout fishing season to open, and on the first available Saturday and Sunday, they disappeared. They showed up the following Monday reporting that they caught the limit, and to prove it, presented each of us with a trout already fried to eat with our dinner. But say—how would you catalogue a member of the "Genus Homo" that for the sake of a few fish, motor 125 miles before 8 a.m., then walk's miels "Over sticks and stones, that rattle his bones" crossing streams and climbing mountains before ever even thinking of casting a fly. We have had one loss and one addition to our official family this month. Mike Jesoom is gone and a Mr. Batch is with us.

CHAMPION HIKER HERE

Councilmen and spectators were entertained just before the trustee's meeting convened Tuesday night by Tom Onzo, alleged champion long distance hiker, when the veteran contorionist did his stunts on the lawn in front of the city hall. The history of his life, feats accomplished and championships won at home and abroad, together with his photograph on a card was sold to the crowd.
