Unto Us a Son Is Given

by ALICE MEYNELL

GIVEN, not lent,
And not withdrawn—once sent,
This Infant of mankind, this One,
Is still the little welcome Son.

NEW every year,
New born and newly dear,
He comes with tidings and a song,
The ages long, the ages long;

EVEN as the cold
Keen winter grows not old,
As childhood is so fresh, foreseen,
And spring in the familiar green.

SUDDEN as sweet
Come the expected feet.
All joy is young, and new all art,
And He, too, whom we have by heart.

The public school will close Friday for the Christmas holidays. The teachers and children will entertain the mothers in the afternoon.

The Parent-Teacher Association held a very pleasant and enjoyable gathering and the gentlemen showed they were not afraid to don the apron and serve the refreshments. The music, and speeches were enjoyed by all.

The Harbor City chamber of commerce was well represented at the Fourth District chambers of commerce held in Torrance last Thursday evening. Those who attended were J. A. Boecker, G. B. Hawkins, H. King and D. B. Layland.

We all agree that gas as a fuel is much cheaper, safer and more convenient than wood, coal or oil, but why can't Harbor City and Lomita get the gas where they want it. The City Fathers have been struggling with the gas company for some time but they don't get much satisfaction from the big corporation.

On Thursday evening the interior of the M. E. church was given a first coat of paint. Eleven of the men of the church worked 'till 10 o'clock. The ladies served refreshments that stayed off the pangs of hunger and it was assured the men did justice to the good eats. Next week, if possible, the interior will be finished.

What is the correct name to call a man who is reckless in driving an automobile? That all depends upon how near he comes to hitting you.

The Ladies Aid of the Harbor City M. E. church held a very successful bazaar last Tuesday. The apron booth in charge of Mesdames Morgan Rozell and Mrs. Boecker was very prettily decorated, all their wares having been sold, the receipts being $48. The fancy work booth had a little of everything, even to a Christmas tree from Santa Claus land. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Green realized $25 from the sale of various articles offered. The candy booth, decorated with national colors, was very attractive and one could not pass without buying. $15.60 was taken in by Mesdames Hamilton and Hoff. The home-cooking and lunch was served out by Mesdames Simmons, Higgs, Campbell and Ray. Sales, $30. The bazaar was a great success.

The U. S. Shipping Board is said to have paid one bill for $600,000.

Torrance The Magic

Is Fast Becoming the Mecca For Those Who Seek Advantages In

INDUSTRY AND FINE HOMES

Since time began Civilization on her westward march has sought the Pleasant Places, where Climate has been the one big, controlling influence governing the selection of social centers, called cities. But when to mild, equitable climate has been added splendid transportation facilities, making possible manufacturing and commercial opportunities, there, great and enduring cities have grown.

The great cities of the world have all achieved their greatness because of location close to water transportation—and in this, TORRANCE is extremely fortunate. We who live here or close by, how little we realize the importance of such idealistic location as enjoyed by the Modern Industrial City of Torrance.
