"Speaking of spark plugs," said a man yesterday, "nothing beats the old-fashioned kind the could be driven with one hand."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sammons of Guadalupe avenue, were the surprised hosts Saturday evening of eighteen or twenty friends from Los Angeles who unexpectedly dropped in for an evening's entertainment. Early in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dangler arrived from the city for a friendly call, but, in fact to see that Mr. and Mrs. Sammons did not leave until the remainder of the party arrived. After dinner the four played 500 until a commotion outside was heard announcing sixteen more guests, who had thoughtfully carried with them a load of delicious refreshments and gifts for their Torrance friends, in honor of their birthday anniversaries. The evening pleasantly passed away as bridge was played.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY

In speaking of a person's faults, pray don't forget your own, remember, those with homes of glass should seldom throw a stone. If we have nothing else to do, but talk of those that sin. 'Tis better we commence at home, and from that point begin. We have no right to judge a man, until he's fairly tried; Should we not like his company, we know the world is wide. Some may have faults, and who has not? The old as well as young. Perhaps we may, for ought we know, have fifty to their one. I'll tell you of a better plan, and find it works full well. To try my own defects to cure before of others tell. And though I sometimes hope they'll be no more than some I know. My own shortcomings bid me let the faults of others go. Then let us all, when we commence to slander friend or foe. Think of the harm one would do to those, we little know. Remember, curses, sometimes like our chickens, roost at home. Don't speak of others faults until we have none of our own.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the many friends for the kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement in the loss of my little sister.
