HOUSEHOLD HONINESS

By Aunt Polly

A CHRISTMAS GREETING

"The Christmas chain seems to reach out invisible hands toward the next link."
I don't think that my friendship chain can even be broken, for Christmas links all the old friends together, with the greetings we find time to send once a year at least. What a blessed thing it is to keep in touch with the old friends at home as well as the new ones here, and the chain each year grows stronger and longer as new links are added. So here are warm wishes for a "Merry Christmas" for the one who sits near the "house by the side of the road" "an inspiration" not an inspiration to all who pass, as his voice rings out in Christmas carols, and to all the loyal News Letter Lomitaites, and the Enterprising Torranceites, from, Your Uncle Mark who is so jolly, and his faithful wife, your friend.

AUNT POLLY.

A SCRIPTURE FRUIT CAKE

One cup Judges 5:25. Three cups I. Kings 4:22; three cups Jeremiah 6:20. Two cups I. Samuel 30:12. One cup Genesis 24:17. One cup Genesis 43:11. Six of saffron 10:14. One teaspoonful Leviticus 2:13. Flavor to taste. Mark 16:1.
Follow Solomon's advice in mixing in Proverbs 13:24, and you will have a good cake.

POINTSETTIA SALAD
Peel and thoroughly wash small tomatoes, and when ready to serve cut in eights, not serving sections and open like petals of a flower in lettuce leaves. Mash a cream cheese, and season with salt and paprika; then force through a potato ricer. In the center of each tomato put one tablespoonful of the cheese. Serve with a French dressing, to which it added finely chopped green pepper.

TOMATO JELLY SALAD
To one can stewed and strained tomatoes add one teaspoon each salt and and powdered sugar and two-thirds box gelatin which has been soaked 15 minutes in one-half cup cold water. Pour into small cups and chill. Run knife around inside the molds, so that when taken out shapes may have rough surface, suggesting a fresh tomato. Place on lettuce leaves, garnish top of each with cream dressing. Beat well two eggs, add one teaspoon mustard, one teaspoon salt, one third cup sugar, two even tablepoons flour. Mix well, then add one-fourth cup vinegar and one cup rich milk or cream. Beat it together and cook over boiling water until mixture thickens. Cool just before serving two tablepoons whipped cream may be added if desired. Melt cheese and put on lunch crackers and serve with salad.—Times Cook Book.

FROZEN SALAD
One can of tomatoes pressed through a sieve. One teaspoonful of salt one-half teaspoon of pepper tablepoons of vinegar and a little onion juice. Mix and pour into freezer, chop some English walnuts and put in when partly frozen.

L. A. FRUIT SALAD
Three apples cut fine, one small stalk of celery cut fine, one-half lb of marshmallows cut up. Mix together, serve on lettuce leaves.

FRUIT SQUARES
One pound dates, one pound figs, one pound walnuts, one-half cup cookies crumbs. Mix and put through food chopper five times. Roll one-half inch thick, cut in squares and cover each square with waxed paper.

CHERRY FUDGE
Dissolve one and one-half cups of granulated sugar in half cup of milk, and add one tablepoonsful of Karo and let boil till a little of the syrup will form a soft ball when tested in cold water; add two tablepoonsful of butter substitute and set on a cake rack to cool; when cold, beat until it begins to thicken, then turn on an oiled platter or marble. Break off small pieces and knead until smooth, adding slices of cherries (or well cooked cranberries) and press one after another into a small pan. When cold and firm unroll and cut into cubes.—American Cookery.

UNCOOKED FUDGE
One large cake chocolate, one-half cup chopped walnuts, one-half lb of chopel pecans, one-fourth cup quercel ginger cut in cubes. Melt chocolate and stir in other ingredients. Pour into buttered mold and stand till hard.—M. P.

FROM MANILA

The Torrance Enterprise and Lomita News Letter were remembered for Christmas with a very pretty greeting from R. O. Denison, of Manila, P. I. Though far away, Denison never fails to show some manner, that he still remembers friends in the States. Over year ago the Union Tool Company lost one of their most valuable employees when Mr. Denison accepted a very lucrative position in the Philippines, and later the same loss was experienced by the Llewellyn Iron Works when C. N. Turner severed his connections with that company to accept a position in France.

101 SUITS IN A WEEK
Cleaning and pressing 101 suits of clothes in one week, besides waiting on the drop-in trade is not an easy matter. But this is what happened to Sam Levy, Torrance tailor this week. The big rush was accounted for in that the "boys" wanted to "step out" Xmas day.—D-24.
