Last Sunday at church the two little children of Nelson Zuver, who was spending the day with his mother, Mrs. Nellie Zuver, were taken suddenly quite ill. Upon being taken to the latter home, they became worse. Dr. Lancaster was called and believed the children had been poisoned; it is not yet certain whether the milk supply was to blame or not. Something most surely is causing a host of stomach disturbances.

SELLS FORTY HORSE SHOE TIRES IN JANUARY

Fred Palmer of the Torrance Vulcanizing Works states that January proved to be one of the best months in their history, they having sold 40 Horse Shoe tires alone, besides many of the other makes they carry. This with the big lot of Vulcanizing work they are securing makes the place a mighty busy one and is a demonstration of the excellent reputation this establishment has created for orders come in from San Diego and Barstow for repair work besides the large patronage at home.

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL CHURCH

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Sunday school, 9:30 A. M. Rev. Geo. Streit, Supt. A class and a welcome for you. Communion services at 10:45 a. m. with sermon by Young People's Alliance, 6:30. Evening service with sermon by Rev. Otto Spreng, Wednesday eve. at 7:30 sharp, choir rehearsal, under direction of Mrs. P. G. Briney. The special features in music planned for the next several months are under way and all choir members and others interested in good music are urged to be present.

Thursday evening, 7:30, mid-week prayer meeting. Please note the change in time from Wednesday to Thursday, Friday eve, Feb. 18, 7:30 the executive committee of the Y. P. A. will meet in the study of the church. There are some important matters to be considered and all members are urgently requested to be present.

Last Sunday was observed in Central church as "Day of Prayer" services throughout the day being well attended. At the morning hour Rev. Otto Spreng preached a powerful and inspiring sermon on "Prayer and Missions," which proved to be a good preparation for the evening service under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society. Mrs. Anna Runck, a returned missionary from Japan and China, gave an interesting address on "The Place of Prayer in My Life." Her son James Gilmore recited the Lord's Prayer in Chinese and daughter Esther sang in the same language. A good offering was received which will go for Home Mission work in the Colorado Conference. Thursday evening of last week was given over to the Junior Choir. At the request of the director several of the parents planned for a splendid dinner in the basement of the church, when forty boys and girls were served. The Sunday school superintendent, Mr. Streit and wife Rev. and Mrs. Weatherwax and Rev. Otto Spreng were guests of honor. Everyone seemed to have a good time and it is hoped to make it an annual affair.

The Junior Choir is proving to be a big factor in Central church and music planned for them for the Easter season is quite interesting. Further notice of this department of work will be made at a later date.

Tuesday evening of this week the Ladies Guild held a Plum Pudding social in the basement of church. A short musical and literary program was given in the auditorium after which refreshments were served. The ladies dispensed Plum Pudding with sauce, ice cream and cake, sandwiches and coffee realizing a neat sum from their efforts.

The Nursery conducted by the young ladies of Miss Spreng's class is becoming quite popular and is being used to advantage by churchgoers who cannot get to church without bringing their little ones with them. All mothers wishing to attend the morning service with out the burden of the children upon them are urged to make use of this feature of Central Church. The nursery is conducted in the Primary and Beginners departments in the basement (entrance at the rear of church. If you come late take your baby or little one directly to this room.

FAST TALKER WINS

C. J. Rahm & Son of the White Garage, formerly Zuvers', have a quantity of broken lines of automobile tires and tubes, of different makes, and in order to dispose of them in a short time, have offered a reduction of 20% off present prices, which is equal to 40% off 1 prices. Mr. Rahm said yesterday that these prices were so low that they would not last long and customers to get in early. He stated, that a smooth and fast talker might get 21% off.—Advertisement.
