

TORRANCE NEWS ITEMS

The Volunteer Firemen of Torrance held their regular business meeting last Monday night.

Arthur E. Martois of Spurlin Court has purchased an acre of Mrs. Etta Russell on Acacia street, Lomita, and will move here. Joe Luck agent.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Moore of Gramercy Ave., entertained Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stange, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanger, and Mr. and Mrs. Moore. 500 was played. Enchiladas were served at 12 mid night.

AKERS BOND $3500

Denying the application to lower the bond of C. Akers, who was one of the four who robbed the Fess Grocery several weeks ago, from $1000 to $500, the bond was raised to $3500 in Justice of the Peace Hunter's Court last week. Akers will be tried in the Superior Court.

CAR STALLED IN WATER

The Ford Sedan of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy of Torrance, balked when it was forced to travel through eighteen inches of water last Sunday at Main street and Slauson Avenue. Sam was compelled to take the "plunge" and push his car to dry land, when even then, it would not "turn over." A tow rope was requisitioned from a passing auto Lizzie was warmed up by running her down the street.

LOCK YOUR AUTO

According to club officials there were 456 automobiles stolen in Los Angeles since January 1 and the theft of cars in other Southern California cities has been in proportion. Los Angeles motorists lost 235 machines by theft last month alone. This breaks all records.

"THINNEST MAN IN WORLD"

Physicians at Long Beach have interested themselves in the case of Walter B. Coleman, the "thinnest man in the world." While six feet tall, Coleman weighs but 60 pounds. He is 36 years old. Some years ago he weighed 175 pounds, but in a period of 17 months his weight dropped to 60 pounds and has remained at that ever since.

DEPART FOR OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hemsath of Cleveland, Ohio, father and mother of A. W. Hemsath of No. 804 Portola, left Tuesday for their home, taking the Northern route to San Francisco, thence to Salt Lake, Ogden, Denver and other points of interest where stop-overs will be made on their way home. The winter months were spent here and the Easterners left with much regret the beauties of Southern California for Ohio, where Mr. Hemsath is interested in the manufacture of Sherwin-Williams products.

Mrs. Thornburg of Los Angeles has been visiting for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dolley.
