POLICY HOLDERS GET $350,000

Declaration of a dividend to holders of converted policies of War Risk Insurance will be announced within a few days. The dividend will amount to about $350,000 and will go to something less than 100, 000 veterans whose insurance was converted into some permanent sort of policy more than a year ago.

The exact amount of the dividend is being determined for each sort of policy by a force of expert actuaries. The dividend payments will be made by check and mailed to the policy holders. It is understood.

VENICE 1921 FASHION SHOW BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE

Beautiful and fashionable clothes are always of interest to women.
Dress beautiful girls in beautiful clothes and you have a magnet that will draw both sexes.

The event department of the Abbot Kinney company had the bit of psychology in mind when it conceived the idea of a stupendous 1921 Easter fashion show, to be presented by the motion picture girls of Southern California on Easter Sunday, March 27, at 1:30 p. m. at the Venice band place.

Followed by one hundred or more of California's delectable "Sunkist" beauties, attired in everything that Milady could desire in her wardrobe, from morning negligee to dec-ollete evening gowns, from the most formal creations of the Paris modistes to the snappiest of sport clothes, a film star of international fame and popularity, Miss Carmel Meyers, Universal star, will lead the 1921 fashions in review before the interested throng. Miss Meyers' personal wardrobe is one of the most complete in filmdom and she is expected to display some startling creations.

WHY TORRANCE SHOULD BE INCORPORATED

Torrance has been growing beyond being a village. Torrance is and has been from its beginning a manufacturing center of great importance. The lack of housing facilities was at first a drawback to make Torrance a city of the sixth class at the very start.

Torrance has furnished an immense amount of war material, of all description, marine engines, shipbuilding material of all kinds.
Besides an abundance of building material, etc.

Torrance stood foremost as to donations to all kinds of war work.
Torrance stood foremost in subscriptions to every war loan. The people of Torrance are patriotic to an intense degree. The people of Torrance are full of civic pride. The only accomplishment Torrance needs today is "Self Government." She needs to be incorporated now. Great interests are at stake, that can only be successfully handled by its own people. The Tax Money will never be evenly distributed until Torrance is incorporated. Manufacturing interests will increase 100 per cent, if Torrance has a stabilized government of its own. Business of all kinds will be stimulated to a marked degree. Self government means system and through system, the right kind of efficiency is obtained.
Efficient application of all matters means economy.

The tax money, economically expended, means that $500 worth of money will make $500 worth of improvements to our city. After incorporation the people of Torrance will have certain rights as a municipality. At present the citizens of Torrance have none at all, and you are absolutely governed as a piece of ranch property by a county government.

Certain interests of a distant city government lay awake nights figuring on plans to grab such a valuable city as Torrance, to further their own centralized interests. Citizens of Torrance remember, that the boundary line of that Octopus grabbing city runs almost by your front door. Vote for incorporation and help to put up that barrier, that only the voice of a united people can register.

"La voci del Popolo."
"The voice of the people." is for incorporation.—Contributed by a candidate for city trustee.
