Values Never Before Equalled In Southern California

$50,000.00 Spring Sale of Genuine "Lifetime" Aluminum Cooking Utensil

We knew that every housewife and every apartment house owner in Southern California would think twice before they overlooked the wonderful savings offered in this $50,000.00 One-Week Sale of "Lifetime" Aluminum Cooking Utensils.

But we never anticipated anything like the tremendous crowds that have already responded to our full-page announcement in the Los Angeles papers yesterday.

Values speak louder than words, and the savings in this sale are such that no thrifty housewife can afford to let them go by.

FACTS ABOUT THIS SALE

The merchants are participating under an agreement with the factory to offer the utensils at wholesale prices plus only the actual expense of handling and without profit to them.

The variety of selections is sufficient to completely outfit any kitchen or meet the wide demands of any apartment house owner.

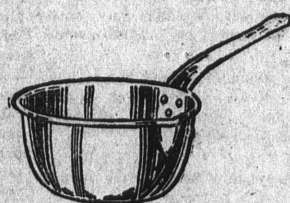

Sale positively ends Saturday—will not come again until June of next year—every utensil sold fully guaranteed by the factory.
