SPOOKS TO MINGLE AT VENICE ON HALLOWEEN

Spooks! Spooks! Spooks! Venice will be inhabited by spooks, goblins and gnomes on the night when the dwellers of the nether regions exercise their privilege of returning to earth and for a brief few hours roam again through the spots which they once loved. Snatching at the opportunity the spirits will romp and play every minute at Venice on Halloween, storing up memories to carry away with them when they are peremptorily back to the beyond for another 364 days.

Those who cannot stand life, action and excitement are warned to stay away from Venice on Halloween, Monday, October 31, for "The Boogie Man" will get them if they don't watch out.

Due preparations have been made to thwart as much possible the madcap pranks of the evil spirits. Music, light and laughter, enough to put the most forbidding orge into a good humor, Yama Yama girls, whose blandishments would make their leader himself a captive, and a clown jazz band, whose antics should make them all forget their deep-dyed past, will be on hand at the spooks' ball and carnival at the Venice pier ballroom.

Master Frank Carlson of the Haward Academy, Los Angeles, spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Seddy, of Kern Court.

Forest Young of Cota street and D. E. McDonald of Narbonne avenue had a very successful rabbit hunt near the Cajon Pass Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurum Reeve left Sunday for San Francisco to spend the week. They will visit the Winchester Repeating Arms Company while there.

AN INVITATION

301 Bradbury Bldg.,
Los Angeles, Cal.
October 22, 1921.

Mr. P. C. Roberts,
Lomita, Cal.

Dear Mr. Roberts—The presence of yourself and friends is very much desired at a gathering of Scientists, Geologists and Engineers, to be held at the D. M. S. & B. Lime Quarry, Saturday morning, October 29th.

Dr. David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University has classified some fifty prehistoric fossil specimens. These will be on exhibit with hundreds of others, together with Dr. Jordan's letters. The fact of this deposit is thoroughly opened up, giving one an excellent opportunity for close inspection of this wonderful formation.

Wear fatigue attire and come prepared for an injection of "D. M. S. Pep." That will make you think you have partaken of the Fountain of Youth. If you are interested in history, science, art, all growth, all progress, all triumph over difficulties, yea, in agricultural prosperity itself, you cannot afford to deny us the pleasure of your presence.

The general assembling point will be at Exposition Boulevard, opposite the State Building, Exposition Park, at 10:30 a. m. sharp. Transportation will be arranged for those who do not have their own autos.

Kindly advise me at the Los Angeles office the names of those in your party; also if you have extra seating capacity in your own auto.

Most cordially,
S. MAUS PURPLE.
P. S.—Sandwiches and coffee will be served.
