

OUR PERIOD FURNITURE DISPLAY

is worth a visit from all lovers of the beautiful. The examples we show of various periods are very fine reproductions of the furniture of those times. It is furniture that would grace a palace, yet we are able for the present to offer it at figures which puts it within the reach of the average purse.

TORRANCE NEWS ITEMS

Mr. J. Guyan is out again after an attack of la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Post's German police dog took first prize at the Riverside Fair last week.

Miss Naomi Rolles, bookkeeper, of the Harbor City Cannery, is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins of Andree avenue.

Roy Flood, photographer, in the new Auditorium Building, was busy Friday taking pictures of all the different departments of the Torrance Glass Factory.

Miss Mildred Anderson is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson, of Cota avenue. Miss Anderson is training for a nurse in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Acree of Gramercy avenue, Torrance, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pangborn, South Oak, Lomita, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Lewis Miller of Gramercy avenue, who is still at the Angeles Hospital, Los Angeles, after an operation for appendicitis last week is improving very satisfactorily.

Uncle John's Ash

HOT WEATHER BEING OVER, IT IS TIME TO COMPLAIN OF THE COLD.

AN AUTO SUGGESTION

Listen, you who in Torrance reside, whether for all time or only for a season now abide, while I voice the virtues of an auto ride. If the blessing of good health you've been denied, spite of skill with which the doctors all have vied, those of schools so new and those in practice old deep dyed. Make up your mind their bitter medicine to hide, then when all their rules and regulations you've defied, you'll find a trip to mountains or to watch old ocean's changing tide is worth far more than quinine or bromide. 'Twill give appetite for the good chicken you have fried, and all the other toothsome things beside. You will say you're glad this fresh air preachment you've applied. I practice what I preach, so am well qualified, for health is wealth, you know, whatever else betide.

SAVING THE GAS BILL

If you have a quarter meter in your home always use a new quarter, as the edges not being worn, the quarter will hold the gas almost a third longer.

SCREEN DOOR PROTECTORS

Nail a wooden bar across the back porch door a little below the center, where you would be likely to strike it carrying out a clothes basket or any large article.

PATCH PLASTERING

Sifted coal ashes, wheat flour and sand. Two parts each of the ashes and sand and one part of the flour. Mix with water. This makes an excellent mortar for patching holes where the plastering is broken. It becomes as hard as stone and can be put on by hand with very little trouble and expense.

When white kid gloves get soiled, a picture or a book is finger marked, or white slippers have a little soil on them, have a piece of art gum on hand. As a dry cleaner it is indispensable and only costs fifteen cents.

BAKED BEANS WITH RELISH

Bake the beans in a small basin with a piece of scored salt pork in center. When cold cover with waxed paper, wrap in strong wrapping paper and place in the bottom of the picnic basket. Fill a small jelly jar on large-mouthed bottle with equal portions of tomato catsup and freshly grated horseradish. Add 1 tablespoonful for each of finely minced green pepper and sweet red pepper or pimiento. Wrap the glass in a paper and place in basket. Mix when ready to use.—L. H. L.

OUR NEWEST SENATOR

This is Hahn C. Rasmus, Republican, who has just been elected to the U. S. Senate from New Mexico.

THE MARCH OF EVENTS

Japan has now a military armament larger than that which Germany maintained, and a more powerful naval armament than Germany ever had. And Japan is continually increasing both.

Marshal Foch recently publicly admitted that with the present huge French army he could "sweep victoriously over all Europe."

England maintains and steadily increases the greatest naval armament she ever had, and keeps on foot an army nearly three times larger than she had before the war.

BRITISH GRAB OUR OIL

Senator King has demanded an investigation of the oil situation in California.

The real situation is that British capitalists, back of whom is the British Government, are secretly obtaining control of California's oil production, under the disguise of American corporations which are American in name only.

PRIZE OFFERED FOR NAME

Mrs. Robert Shriner and Mrs. C. J. Rahm have offered a five pound box of candy to the person who furnishes them the best name for their new confectionery store in the Auditorium Building, Torrance. They are to serve light lunches and have for sale high grade candies and ice cream. This place is exceedingly neat and up-to-date.

Names may be left either at the confectionery store, Torrance, or the Lomita Printing Co., Lomita. The contest will close November 1, so hurry and send in your name. You may win the box of candy.

SARDINE SANDWICHES

Toast lightly thin slices of well-trimmed bread. When cold spread with tartare sauce, cover with skinned and boned sardines, sprinkle with minced capers and cover with slices of the toast spread with creamed butter. Wrap separately in wax paper, then all together in a damp cloth and strong paper.

CHEESE CUTLETS

Scald 1 cup rich milk, add 3 tablespoonsful each of flour and cornstarch softened in half cup of cold milk and cook till it thickens. Add three-quarter cup grated cheese, quarter teaspoon salt, half teaspoon each of paprika and mustard, 2 tablespoonsful of butter and 2 beaten egg yolks. Turn into a shallow pan about half inch thick. Set in refrigerator till very cold; then cut into cutlet or bar shape, roll in fine rolled toasted bread crumbs, then in slightly beaten egg and then in crumbs again and let cool again. Fry in deep fat. When cold wrap each in waxed paper and pack in a box.—L. H. Larned.

CAMPED BISCUITS

Three-quarters cup of some cereal mixed with equal amount of flour, one teaspoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of olive oil or shortening—no more—mix in just enough water to wet thoroughly and beat briskly until it is almost crumbly. Mold biscuits three inches across and a quarter of an inch thick, place in hot, greased pan and bake before a hot fire. Should be close grained and crisp when thoroughly baked.

When preparing eggs for a lunch stand them for a day, small end down, in a wire rack and boil them in the rack. In this way the yolk will be in the center of egg.
