SACRED CONCERT AT THE LOMITA CHURCH

Last Sunday evening the Lomita church was filled to capacity by a congregation of people who thoroughly enjoyed the sacred concert given at that time. The augmented choir was under the direction of Mrs. Willacy, with Mrs. O. W. Thistle as organist. Other accompanists were Mrs. Stinton and Mrs. Stout. Mrs. Chustina of San Pedro was heard with pleasure in two solos, "Sun of My Soul" and "Nearer My God To Thee." Mrs. Groves sang "The Holy City" with expression and feeling. The solos "I'm a Pilgrim," sung by Mr. Crane, and "Eternity," sung by Mr. Hawkins were heard with rapt attention by the congregation. A trio, "O, Lamb of God," was sung by Mrs. Willacy, Miss Mary Wilkinson and Mr. Stinton. A quartette, "At the Close of Day," was rendered by Mrs. Fryer, Miss Mary Wilkinson, Mr. Fryer and Mr. Stinton. A quintette, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," was sung by Mrs. Trenchall, Mrs. Fryer, Mrs. Francis, Mr. Trenchall and Mr. Stinton. These three numbers were effectively rendered and greatly enjoyed. Special mention must also be made of the three anthems, "No Shadows Yonder," "Soft as a Voice" and "Great and Marvellous," the last of these being a fitting climax to the evening of sacred song.

Besides those already mentioned, the following persons were members of the choir: Mrs. Donigan, Mrs. Ella B. Miller, Mrs. Claude Thistle, Mrs. John G. Wilson, Mr. Harold Coackley, Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. John G. Wilson.

A PRAYING COLONEL FOR ALL-AMERICAN

When "Bo" McMillan, quarterback on the little Center College team, started his now historic dash around Harvard's left end to a 6 to 0 victory the other Saturday, he was sprinting into football's "Hall of Fame" as an All-American back for 1921. Football folks say that one performance, following his great three-year record, marks him as one of the greatest grid men of the age. McMillan is a Texas boy and Center College is a small school located at Danville, Kentucky. Charles Moran, league baseball umpire, is a member of the team. The team is known as the "Praying Colonels," as they kneel in prayer before every game. They lost to Harvard in 1920, their only defeat in four years. It is predicted Moran will go to a bigger school next year and McMillan become coach at Center. Pictures show McMillan and his get-away around end.

SERMON BY HARRY V. ADAMS AT LOMITA CHURCH

"The Duty of Digging Wells" was the striking title of the sermon delivered Sunday morning by Mr. Harry V. Adams. His text was: "When passing through the Valley of Baca, make this well." There was great need of water in the semitropical land of Palestine. The man who dug a well brought health and comfort to man and beast. The Valley of Baca was typical of pain, suffering, sorrow and disappointment. As the well of water refreshed the weary traveler while passing through the hot, dusty valley, so the water of life refreshes our souls. The sermon abounded in apt and illuminating illustrations and was uplifting to all.

The music of the morning was enhanced by solos from Mrs. Willacy and Mr. Stinton.

Mrs. D. M. Marks of Pine street is ill with whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Clark and friends of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Clark were among those from out of town who attended the sacred concert at the Lomita church last Sunday evening.

NOTICE

On Friday, November 18, at 2 o'clock the Lomita Center of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau will hold a field meeting, first convening at the school house grounds and adjourning later to a deciduous orchard. Robert W. Hodgson, Farm Advisor, and V. F. Blanchard, Assistant Farm Advisor, will conduct a demonstration on the pruning of deciduous trees, using the "long" system advocated by the College of Agriculture. Trees of different ages will be pruned and effort made to show the system in detail. Invite your neighbors to attend this demonstration.
