WELL-DRESSED GENTLE MEN

always are placed in a more advantageous position socially and in business than their plainer brethren. There's no justice in that. We've made up our minds to equalize matters. Get on equal terms with the swell dressers by buying your clothes here and save about half.

CHAS. H. DYAR DEAD

Passed to the higher life on the morning of November 14, at his home, 131 South Hicks street, Los Angeles, Charles Hubert Dyar, aged 65 years. Mr. Dyar was well known in Torrance, having lived at 2211 Andreo Ave. until three months ago. Services were held at the French Undertaking Parlors in East First street, Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock by the Spiritualist Society of Good Fellowship, Grace Frear, pastor, read a passage from the bible, and the choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Nearer My God To Thee." Brief services were held at the chapel in Ontario, Cal., where the remains were laid to rest on the family lot. Deceased leaves his wife, Ruth M. and his mother and sister of Ontario, Cal. Mrs. Dyar wishes to thank her many friends for their words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings.

The Baptist church has added a bungalow to the rear of their building, where the primary department of the Sunday school will meet. This class is in charge of Mrs. Geo. Wood side, Mrs. D. C. Turner and Mrs. J. Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Denny of Cota Ave., entertained Mrs. Hazel Burton of Los Angeles Friday and Saturday last. They returned to the City with their guest Saturday evening and all attended the performance at Grauman's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnson of Lomita, were picnicking and motoring Sunday, when they drove as far as Orange.
