Mrs. Huggard of Andro avenue has been ill for the past week, but has recovered.

The next regular meeting of the Torrance P. T. A. will be held on Wednesday, December 13, at the school. It is necessary that every member be present, as important business is to be transacted, and a good program is promised.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Antone Conclafdi of Los Angeles, but formerly of Andro avenue, Sunday, December 4, 1921, a boy.

Jimmie and Jean Fitzhugh are having an attack of the measles.

The Torrance Feed and Fuel Co. opened Monday a branch store at Belvedere Gardens. V. C. Close is in charge.

Miss Laura Couch of Los Angeles was a week-end visitor at the home of her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zehrbaugh moved Wednesday from the Castle Apartments to Los Angeles in order to be near where they are building a large home on Fifth avenue.

Mr. Hanson, who is a chief stockholder in the Lovell Glass Factory and a banker in Lovell, Wyoming, was in Torrance last week visiting friends.

Mrs. Matilda Winters and guests, Mrs. Anna Rothleder and Miss Rose Rothleder, spent Wednesday visiting Mrs. John Rayencamp of Los Angeles.

There was a good sized congregation at the Episcopal services held in the Legion Hall Sunday afternoon. These services are to be continued indefinitely.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES

Episcopal services will be held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Legion Hall, Torrance. Thomas P. Swift of Wilmington will be rector, and if there is a good attendance the services will be continued regularly.

VALUE OF A THUMB

Lawyer—Madam, you state to the court that you value the thumb that you lost at three thousand dollars. Will you kindly tell the court just why this particular thumb was worth so much money?

Lady Plaintiff—It was the thumb that I kept my husband under.

MAY YOHE SELLS GEMS GIVEN HER BY TWO HUSBANDS

May Yohe, who once was a stage favorite, and then again had a little ranch in Lomita, must live.

So in the auction rooms of Darling & Co., New York, beside a quantity of Japanese bric-a-brac and odds and ends from here and there, were sold a few days ago:

A dinner ring with a canary diamond, the gift of Lord Francis Hope, a former husband.

A large diamond, the gift of Putnam Bradlee Strong of New York, May Yohe's second husband.

And a large and widely varied collection of household furnishings of one kind and another.

May Yohe, who once knew the homage paid near-royalty, is now the wife of Capt. John Smuts, formerly of the British army.
