FUNERAL OF MRS. E. A. JONES

The funeral services of Mrs. E. A. Jones of South Arlington were held Wednesday at 3 o'clock, interment being at Inglewood cemetery. Deceased passed away Tuesday morning, the cause of death being a complication of diseases. She leaves to mourn her death a husband, E. A. Jones; two daughters, Mrs. James L. King and Mrs. R. W. Leslie, both residents of Torrance; and Mrs. E. D. Tompson, Mrs. Kuhn and Mrs. Martha Woods, sisters, of Long Beach. Mrs. Jones came to Torrance three months ago to make her home, from Kensington, Pa. She had been in ill health for many years, and came here with the hope that the climatic conditions would improve her health.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Grace Denny, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Denny of Cota avenue, Saturday afternoon, November 25. Nine little friends were present, celebrating her ninth birthday anniversary. Old fashioned games were enjoyed and a beautiful birthday cake with ice cream and home-made candy was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George Graves entertained the Torrance Tennis Club Monday evening at their home on South Andree. All enjoyed a delightful evening of cards, and dainty refreshments were served by the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Honeycutt of Temple, Texas, were guests for the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beckwith, their aunt and uncle. A family dinner was enjoyed Sunday, and on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt left for Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Watson and family attended the Industrial Relations Club picnic at Brent's Mountain Crag, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Close attended a family dinner, Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Close's sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Garvey, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oaks of Oshkosh, Wis., arrived last week by automobile, and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Meizner of Portola avenue. Mrs. Oaks is Mrs. Meizner's sister. Their arrival was a total surprise to the Meizners. They expect to stay through the winter.

The Union Tool company gave the U. T. Ball team a state dinner Tuesday evening at "Ye Bull Pen Inn," Los Angeles, celebrating the winning of the championship.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes of South Andree have moved into their new home in the new tract, "Gardena Gardens," near Gardena.
