100 VISIT NEW TEMPLE

Over one hundred Master Masons attended the stated meeting of Torrance Lodge F. & A. M. in the new temple last Friday night. This was the first meeting held in the hall since completed. Members and visitors were enthusiastic in their praise of the magnificance of the new temple, its arrangement, and many compliments were given the building committee upon their selection of furnishings, rugs, seats, divans and the general lighting effects. Colors selected give a restful appearance in the large hall and speakers in an ordinary tone of voice are easily heard.

The dedication of the building will take place Friday, May 18, 1923, at 8:00 o'clock. A chicken dinner will be served the same evening at 6:00 o'clock to which all Master Masons are cordially invited.

NOTICE

NEW CAFE IN BROOKS BUILDING

Expect to Open Soon; Ask People Not to Eat Until They Do

"The Golden West Cafe will open .Don't eat until we do," soon. Don't eat until we do," appears on a sign in the window of the new Brooks building.

This may be explained by saying that Carl Pelley, a well-known Los Angeles caterer, and S. J. Savo, formerly chef at the Alexandria Hotel, Los Angeles, will open a first-class cafe just as soon as carpenters and painters are ready to turn over the key.

The arrangement of the interior has been agreed upon by the proprietors. They will build a triangle counter, with steam table and cook range in view, connecting, as othat a minute service can be given. Tables and chairs will be a feature and catering to lodges and parties will be a feature and catering to lodges and parties will be a feature and catering to lodges and parties will be made.

Asked why they selected Torrance as a business location, Mr. Pelley stated that aside from this being a factory city and oil showings good, one of the main reasons for selecting the city was the newspaper printed here. Its up-todate way of handling the oil news, general news and the fact that the merchants' advertisements were well gotten up, it appeared to him that they must be a progressive set of business people. Wanting to join them, both he and his partner decided upon Torrance as their favored place.
