Pacific Ready Cut Men Locate Here; See Fine Future

W. P. Clarke and A. V. Seymour, distributors and builders of Pacific Ready Cut homes, have located in Torrance. After spending considerable time looking over various cities in Southern California for a building program, they decided Torrance has the most promising future of any of the growing cities of the south. They predict a second Gary, Ind., here. The bulk of the industries will come here, as Torrance is the logical spot for them, they believe.

Mr. Clark has been in the banking business in California for the past ten years, having organized two very successful banks. He will handle the financial end of the organization.

Mr. Seymour is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame, and prior to going into the real estate and building business owned the Coast Motor company of San Francisco. He will handle the construction of the buildings. They are in a position to build anything from a small garage to a large office building, they announce.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

This evening there will be a social held in the basement of the Central Evangelical church. Everyone is welcome. These affairs are always enjoyable, and there is no reason to believe that this one will be any exception.

W. E. Bowen and R. A. Spencer attended the district executive meeting held in the United Presbyterian church at Ninth and Figueroa streets, Los Angeles.

A large number of Christian Endeavorers were present at the district rally at Moneta last Friday evening. Local members who attended included Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Zuber, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bowen, R. A. Spencer, Jacob Grosscup and Mr. Layman.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

Charged with having liquor in his possession, John Tarbell pleaded guilty and was given $400 or 400 days. He's in the county jail.

O. Hardy, employed at the Talbert mud pit, swore out a warrant Tuesday for a gypsy, or gypsies, who had gotten away with $116 of his hard-earned coin. Hardy caught the woman lifting his purse, and grabbed her. The purse dropped to the ground, but not before the money had been extracted. While Hardy was examining his purse the hand made their getaway. He gave chase, but lost them on the boulevard.

SPARLING-HUNN WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hunn of Plaza del Amo was the scene of a pretty wedding last Sunday afternoon, when Miss R. Dean Sparling was united in marriage to William E. Hunn by Rev. H. C. Curley of the Gardena Baptist church.

The bride, charming in a gown of grey silk crepe trimmed with pearl beads and pearl ornaments, was attended by Miss Vera Barsch of Gardena, who was prettily attired in pale pink silk and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

The groom was attended by Douglas Collins.

The room and table were beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations and ferns, and the decorations on the wedding cake carried out the color scheme.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparling of Gardena, received many beautiful gifts.

Friends and relatives who witnessed the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparling, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hunn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Weller and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brown of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Garner of Hermosa Beach, Miss Vera Barsch, Douglas Collins, Mrs. Rodgers, Miss Louise Rodgers, Jack Rogers, Mrs. Caroline Collins, Mrs. Percy Smith, and Leon Wilks.

DR. LEAKE WINS SUIT

The case of Leake vs. Rupprecht was tried in Judge Hunter's court Tuesday. A judgment of $40 and costs was rendered against Rupprecht. Dr. Leake had brought suit against Wm. Rupprecht for $75 because of damage done to the Leake machine last August, when the laundry car driven by Rupprecht backed out from a curb and struck the former's machine.

MACCABEE ITEMS

A meeting of Maccabee officers will be held Monday evening, March 3, at the home of Mrs. Anna Stadig of El Prado apartments.

The attendance at the last regular meeting was very gratifying to those who have the best interests of the organization at heart. It is hoped that as much interest will be shown at the next regular meeting, March 11, when the initiatory degree will be conferred.
