HANGING ON.

The man who sticks has this lesson learned: Success doesn't come by chance—it's earned.

By pounding away; for good hard knocks will make stepping stones of the stumbling blocks.

He knows in his heart that he cannot fail; That no ill-fortune can make him quail.

While his will is strong and his courage high, For he's always good for another try.

He doesn't expect by a single stride To jump to the front; he is satisfied To do every day his level best, And let the future take care of the rest.

He doesn't believe he's held down by the boss—it's work, and not favor, that gets across.

So his motto is this: "What another man Has been able to handle, I surely can."

For the man who sticks has the sense to see He can make himself what he wants to be, If he'll off with his coat and pitch right in— Why the man who sticks can't help but win!
