The Fact that we are exceedingly careful to purchase stock at best obtainable prices.

The Fact that it is our policy to work for "turnover" rather than attempt an exorbitant profit on our individual sales.

These among other reasons have contributed to our ability to offer values that you will find it hard to duplicate.

Add 3 Teachers

At High School

Three teachers have been added the high school faculty. Two of tem are residents of Torrance. The stella M. Young, past presidents of the Women's Club, who as substituted in both the ele-entary and high schools for over to years, has been regularly appointed to teach in the English and conomics department. Miss Lois ingenfelter, daughter—of-Rev.—B. Lingenfelter of the Christian nurch, who has been teaching printed to year and is a graduate of the Washington State University in four-year course of music and camatics, will assist Mrs. Marriet T. Elschen in the music deartment. This department has soone so popular that two teachers are necessary.

Miss Catherine Millerd, a graduate of Grinnell College of Iowa ho has done advanced work in oth the University of California and the University of Southern alifornia, has taken charge of biblic speaking and biology courses.
