The BANK OF AMERICA is large enough to inspire the confidence of its customers—but not too large to give every consideration to the interest of each depositor. Our officers will never be too busy to consult and assist patrons in every manner. We hold this not only as an essential service—but a duty as well.

The Board of Directors of the State Exchange Bank, representative of the commercial and business life of Torrance, becomes an advisory board for the Torrance Branch of the BANK OF AMERICA.

The members are H. H. Dolley, of the Dolley Drug Company, W. E. B. Partridge, of the Union Tool Company, C. L. Bisbee, of the Western Sheet Glass Company, Carl L. Hyde, and J. B. Hines.
