MAGNIFICENT BUILDINGS of Torrance Tapestry Brick

The Y. W. C. A. building in Long Beach is being pointed to with pride in that city as one of the most beautiful structures of its kind in the Southland.

Torrance SHIRVAN TAPESTRY FACE BRICK was used in the construction of this edifice.

The Torrance Brick Company is also able to boast of having furnished the brick of many recently constructed hotels and apartment buildings in Los Angeles and several now under construction.

Pupils in beauty culture are being admitted now to the Chicago School of Beauty at Redondo Beach and Long Beach. For particulars see the advertisement in this issue.

The Torrance fire department assisted the county men at the business district blaze at Moneta Tuesday night, when three store buildings were seriously damaged. The Torrance boys succeeded in saving several nearby structures from burning and helped put out the big blaze.

Con Rooney of San Pedro, aged 50, was arrested at midnight Wednesday by Officers Edwards, Stroth and Hamilton and lodged in jail on charges of possessing and transporting liquor. The police confiscated five pints of white moonshine. A heavy blackjack was taken from the seat of the car in which Rooney was driving. Chief Patterson is investigating Rooney's record.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Tuesday night at Mrs. A. L. Greiner's on Portola Avenue.

The Frady-Nolan Company of Hermosa Beach invites all Torrance realtors to participate in the sales of Hermosa Crest, the new beach subdivision opening this week.

Torrance School Indoor Team Beats Lomita Players

The Elementary School indoor baseball team won a victory over the Lomita team at the Torrance diamond on Monday in the first interschool game the boys have played.

The score was 22 to 10.

The school has an excellent line-up, with Pedro Rios pitcher, Cecil Justice catcher, Fred Powell, Shirley Justice, Frank Woodington, Cruz Querra, Herbert Kruger, William Arripato, Toshi Shimatsu and Elmer Rowenstein.

Schools to Observe Memorial Day Here

The Torrance Elementary School will celebrate Memorial Day at 11 a. m. Friday at the High School Auditorium, and extends a cordial invitation to all parents and friends.

The program will open with a special chorus, to be followed with a flag drill by the boys from Room No. 2. Mrs. Helen Berry will next give the history of the poem, "Flanders Fields."

W. Harold Kingsley is the speaker, and will address his talk to the children.

The program will close with the singing of "America" and the salute to the flag.
