I says to Hudd

I guess things will be pretty quiet for a month or two with everybody going on their vacations and all.

And Hudd says yes, I guess the only thing that will be going on will be the rent.

And just then a couple came in and the lady says we have always saved our money every year and sat on uncomfortable chairs so we could go away from home and be comfortable for two weeks.

And this year we decided we would spend our vacation money on some furniture and be comfortable all the year.

And we showed them around and they sat in a lot of chairs and he picked out a chair he could rest in and she picked one she liked and they ordered a porch swing for warm days.

And a few days later they were in and they said they had enjoyed staying home more than any vacation.

And the only trouble was the neighbors had all decided not to go away this year and they came around and sat on their chairs and their swing.

Kitty

P.S. We told them to send their neighbors to see Huddleston's.
