"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Dick Smith just gets back home from a trip east Friday and I guess they didn't have no time to buy groceries in time for breakfast Sat. a. m. because Dick was seen trying to get into Smith's cafe on Cabrillo ave. and that cafe has not been doing its stuff for some few weeks and Dick he says things has certainly changed while I was away.

Well, Nebraska didn't win Sat. either and all them cornshuckers could do was hold the U. of Wash. to a 6 to 6 tie while on the other hand the U. of Mich. which is where I went to school until the dean said I had learnt all they need to know and they wasn't no need of my staying in college no more, but what I started out to say was that the U. of Mich. beat Wisconsin 21 to 0 and it took Mich. just 31 seconds to make three touchdowns and if they is any Nebraska boozers that can make them step up. Them Nebraska heavy-hoofs couldn't make three touchdowns in 31 seconds unless each player was riding in a armored car and the other team all dropped dead. (York Teller, please copy.)

If you want to get advance information on who is going to win football games every Sat. why the thing to do is to find out who Spud Murphy is picking to win and then you take the ones he thinks are going to lose and pick them for your winners and you'll be just about 100 percent right. Last Sat. Spud picked Notre Dame against the Army, Yale against Pennsylvania, U. S. C. against Stanford, Columbia against Ohio State, Illinois against Iowa, The Army, Penn, Stanford, Ohio and Iowa all win. Spud now guesses that U. S. C. will beat Iowa which convinces me Iowa will win about 25 to nothing.

Spud says if Iowa and U. S. C. would play in Long Beach they wouldn't be nothing to it because public opinion would be so strong against the westerners.

If Iowa loses Spud says he's going to arrange a horseshoe pitching contest between the two teams and mortgage his future on Iowa.

Down to the firemen's demonstration Thurs. nt. Ben Lingenfelter makes a fire prevention speech and after his talk Ben gets lots of congratulations on his versatility. The boys saying Ben all your life you have specialized in fighting fire after life and now you prove that you're just as good fighting it on earth.

Ben answers that he's strong for fire prevention both before and after death, and avers it's almost as hard these days to convince folks of the importance of flame prevention after life as it is during. Nobuddy wuz hurt.

Pax Paxman watches the house burn at the fire demonstration and he says it looks like a total loss and they'll be lucky if they save the lot.

This here cat of ours she attacks the baby chicks in Everett Malone's back yard which is right next door to our house and it looks for a time as though I have got to chloroform that here cat and I accuse Everett of having baby chicks so that cats will kill them and then folks will have to buy chloroform at his drug store to kill the cats with but anyway the thing goes on for quite a few days and finally Everett he says is this here cat of yours a good mouser and I says she is not only a good mouser but she is the mother of scores of little mousers and he says Okay I'll take that cat down to the drug store because they is mice down there and the boss at my house she says maybe he wants to get the cat near the chloroform and I says that wouldn't make me mad, but anyway I takes the cat down to the drug store only Everett don't know the joke yet because the boss at our house she tells me that this here cat is once more expecting. Gee Whiz!
