TORRANCE NOTES

Noticed at the concert given recently by the Torrance-Redondo Choral Society were Mr. and Mrs. Bellini, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Briney, and Mrs. Fred Leasing and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodington and Mrs. F. M. Reavie enjoyed a picnic luncheon Monday at Long Beach with Mr. and Mrs. C. Watson of Saskatchewan and Mr. and Mrs. Andrews of Pomona.

Mrs. Hugh Buchanan, formerly of the Castle Apartments, is critically ill at the Osteopathic Sanatorium in Los Angeles.

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Kingsley of 1333 Engrace avenue. All members and women eligible for membership are urged to attend.

The American Legion bowling team won two out of three games from the Rotary pin splitters at the American alleys Tuesday night. "Nobuddy was hurt."

Residents of Torrance are happy that Mr. Stevens, our popcorn man, is back at his old stand. Mr. Stevens underwent an operation on his eyes and once more is doing business in front of the First National Bank and the Torrance theatre.

The Kiwanis Club of Torrance Tuesday put on a luncheon program for the newly installed Kiwanis Club of Watts. Rev. F. A. Zeller made the principal address.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Israel announces that her dancing classes in the future will be held Saturday morning at the Gardner Music Company store on Sartori avenue instead of at the Torrance Theatre.

Mrs. J. C. McVey, manager of the Torrance Theatre, announces that the Piggy-Wiggy Hawaiian Trio will appear in person at the local Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday nights, March 2 and 3.

Section D Mass Meeting Attracts Nearly 200 Women

The mass meeting of Section D held last Friday at Gardena was attended by nearly 200 P.-T.A. workers.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Gardena High, Gardena Elementary, Moneta Elementary, and Amestory Avenue Schools were co-hostesses, represented by Mrs. Charlotte Leonard, president of the Gardena High School association. After the opening exercises Mrs. Leonard introduced the other hostesses and the principals of the schools, each of whom gave a short talk.

Mrs. G. L. Groves, councillor, then took the chair and introduced the following federation officers: Mrs. C. C. Noble, "mother" of the P.-T.A.; Mrs. Belle Hop, first vice-president; Mrs. A. W. Meek, fifth vice-president; Mrs. Fletcher Scott, historian; Mrs. J. L. Thornton and Mrs. Ferris, press and membership chairmen; and Mrs. W. A. Miller, councillor of Section A.

Mrs. Noble gave an interesting talk on Founders' Day.

A basket of beautiful flowers was presented to Mrs. Groves by Section A.

Interspersed with life talks by the visitors were several especially good readings and vocal selections.

Reciprocity Day At Women's Club Tuesday, March 3

The Women's Club of Torrance will give a Reciprocity Day program Tuesday, March 2, at 1:30 p.m. District speakers will be present. A tea will be held at the close of the program for which a charge of 25 cents will be made. Members are requested not to bring guests, on account of lack of space, as 150 visitors are expected to be present.

BUYS AT CARLSBAD

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Roginald Rattenbury of Pennsylvania avenue will regret to hear that they are leaving us next week. Mr. and Mrs. Rattenbury have purchased a home in the town of Carlsbad and a five-acre ranch on the outskirts, and plan to leave the state of various sorts. Mr. Marshall, Mrs. Rattenbury's father, here recently from New York, will accompany them. The Rattenburys will not sell their home here, but will rent it; so maybe they won't stay in Carlsbad. We congratulate the Carlsbadians while we deplore our hard luck.

SCHOOL NEWS

HIGH SCHOOL

Dr. Charles Barker will be the speaker at assembly next Wednesday at Torrance High School. As Dr. Barker is to address only thirteen schools, Torrance High is fortunate to be selected as one of the chosen few.

On Friday afternoon the high school boys will present a stunt program. Parents and friends of the students are cordially urged to attend this affair, which will be presented at 2:30 o'clock and promises much merriment.

On Thursday afternoon there will be a meeting of principals of this district at the Narbonne High School in Lomita for the purpose of re-leaguizing the schools so that a league can be made from city schools only, thus eliminating the necessity of the home teams going so far from home to play their matches.

Herbert S. Wood, principal of Torrance High School, has moved from San Pedro to Torrance.

The trials and tribulations of a railroad engineer were revealed in a very graphic manner by Mr. Colett, speaker at assembly at the Torrance High School and who is safety supervisor for the Santa Fe railroad. He held the attention of the students as well as any speaker we have had this year, partly because of his subject, "Safety First," and partly because of his convincing and earnest way of presenting the subject.

The lightweight basketball team of the Torrance High has won the championship of the Marine League, and the cup will now be the proud possession of the high school here. This is the first athletic championship won by Torrance, although the boys came quite close to winning it last year.

It would be impossible to report all the exciting features of the Faculty-Heavyweight game pulled off Friday evening in the American Legion hall. Appreciation was expressed by a constant shout of encouragement to the faculty players, and they gave the heavyweights good practice.

Monday, Feb. 22, Torrance had an influx of old grads. We were glad to shake hands again with George Watson, Turner McLean, Clifford Grant, Pearl Arnold, Arnold Campbell, Margaret Baron, Walter Eason, and Florence Beckwith.

"When the sun goes down and the moon comes up, Torrance will shine." That only half expresses it, but if you will sum up enjoyment of a snake dance, the delight of a weiner bake, and the spirit and pep which come from singing and yelling, you will have some idea of the brightness with which Torrance shone last Thursday night. The occasion was a rally given by the boys of T. H. S. for the Girls' League, and from the first tiny blaze to the last red coal everyone had a glorious time. One of the features of the evening was the presentation of candy by the Girls' League to each boy on the basketball teams, which was a total surprise. At last came a big snake dance through town, and the only regret was the finish.

ELEMENTARY

Miss Sykes, assistant supervisor of the nature study department, visited the school on Tuesday and assisted Miss Mowry in rearranging and cataloguing the exhibits of rocks, shells and insect life in the front hallway. Anyone having nature specimens which they are willing to give the school for this exhibit should send them to Miss Mowry.

New children coming in have raised our enrollment so that a new room was opened on Tuesday. Mrs. Fanny Van Voorhes now has a new A4-B5 room, and Miss Robinson and Miss Thomas have temporary half-day sessions in the bungalow.

EVENING SCHOOL

The millinery class closed last week, due to insufficient enrollment and the fact that Mrs. Hayden, the teacher, has been assigned to day classes, which precludes evening work.

Mr. Austin is planning to devote a portion of the remainder of the term to a course in auto-electrics theory. Full announcement will be made in the next issue of this paper.

Enrollment may still be made in Spanish, woodshop, auto-shop, welding, cookery, gymnasium for men, gymnasium for women, reed work, bookkeeping, shorthand, dressmaking, and typing.

The "4 Bells" cottage at Laguna Beach was the scene of a delightful house party last weekend, when Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bell proved charming hosts to 30 of the elementary teachers. The weather was perfect for the campfire and marshmallow toast on the beach, as well as the swimming and hiking which the crowd enjoyed.

Lomitans Attend Formal Luncheon

Mrs. Janet Whiteside of Los Angeles entertained at a delightful formal luncheon last Friday. Local guests present were Mrs. John G. Wilson and Mrs. W. J. Bell, of Lomita, and Mrs. Charles Gregg and Mrs. William Shepherd, of Harbor City.

Max Morgan of Taft spent Sunday at the Pina Hotel.

Buffalo Meat Will Be Sold Here Saturday

Lovelle Ott, Former Range Rider, Now Meat Dealer, Announces Sale

Buffalo meat! Yes, sir, and right fresh from the plains. And it can be had in Torrance Saturday.

Lovelle Ott, erstwhile cowpuncher in the wide open spaces and now meat market proprietor in Torrance, used to enjoy his buffalo meat in the good old days when he rode the range. So did a lot of westerners who now are residents of Torrance.

Well, Lovelle managed to locate some good fresh buffalo meat and it will be on sale here Saturday at the Rock Bottom.

So now the old timers who used to eat buffalo meat can enjoy the privilege of giving their children and grandchildren a taste of the viand.

D. G. Hudson of Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada, arrived this week and will make his home in Southern California. Mrs. Hudson has been a resident at the El Prado Apartments for some time.
