"Just for Fun"
By RAS BERRY

Don Baxter he meets me over to Fred Palmers where they fix your tires and you go away all tired and Don he starts in to give me the cranberries for not having put in the paper a couple weeks ago that he is the papa of a 7 lb. baby boy and Harvel Guttenfelder who is standing nearby says they don't run them birth notices in the paper unless the baby weighs 8 lbs. or better or the father can lick the editor. Which, I says is the plain truth and Don says well I can lick the editor and I says all right then I'll run the notice this wk. And here it is.

Them little cats of ours is getting pretty big and they is a couple tom cats that is hanging around our house trying to kill them and for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ludlow who lives next door to us I wish somebody would come and take them off our hands. Last night them little cats and their mama was on the screen porch and a big tom cat gets in through the hole in the screen that some dawgs made in the screen and they was the loudest screechin you ever heard and the boss at our house jumps up out of bed and runs out and the mama cat has got this big tom cat run up the screen and is jumping at him and clawing a hunk out of him at every jump and the missus lets him get clawed some and then chases him out the door with a broom and all the time she hears Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow talking only she don't know what they is saying and I says I guess from the standpoint of continued peace in the neighborhood maybe its a good thing. One of the 4 cats has been gave away. Come one and come all before our neighborhood is all arose.

I drives into L. A. with Dr. Geo. Shidder to get a spint from a surgical instrument store in L. A. and Doc parks his car in a loading zone and when we comes out a policeman is giving him a tag and Doc tells him about the emergency case this here spint is needed for and the policeman just says nothing but hands him the tag and Doc is madder than a horn only he don't say much but when we drives away and is on another street Doc gets pretty brave and he sees another policeman and Doc pulls up and he sure does bowl out Policeman No. 1 to Policeman No. 2 and he gets it over so good that Policeman No. 2 he says gimme the tag and forgit it. I can't remember what Doc told that Policeman No. 2 but it was sure a mouthful.

CLAIMANT HEIRS

These three sisters—Mrs. Effie McWilliams, Clarksdale, Mo. (top); Mrs. Addie Clark Miller, Denver, Minn., Orrick, Mo.—claim they are daughters of the late Senator William Andrew Clark of Montana, and are suing for their share in his $50,000,000 estate.

The 1st. of the mo. this mo. fell on Monday and that is a hard day to collect bills on Monday and from the receipts I got going around town collecting (?) why I concludes that March come in like a lyn.

I was talking to a married man here in town and I ain't gonna tell his name and he says that he sees in the paper a picture of a calf with two heads and the newspaper item says they is a tongue in each head and they both work at the same time and this here married man says he is sure elated that women aint put up like that calf.

Well I dunno I says if a woman had two tongues she could argue with herself and that might help plenty.

Mrs. Stanley Booth and daughter, of Inglewood, are guests of Mrs. Booth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prince, of 250th street.

Mrs. J. L. Luck of 257th street and Mrs. L. C. Luck of Palm street were luncheon guests Tuesday of Mrs. David Adamson of Harbor City.

Mrs. Frank Baker and her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. James Bales, were entertained Friday by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Doctor of Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. E. Mingle of San Diego is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Clark of Weston street.

Mrs. Minnie Brodecky of Omaha, Neb., spent several days with her cousin, Mrs. E. E. Ferguson, of Redondo boulevard.

Mrs. E. E. Williams of Narbonne avenue is recovering from an attack of the "flu."

YOUNG FLIER

Farnam Parker, 13 years old, youngest licensed aviator, recently gave Washington a few thrills with his clever flying.

EASTER IS JUST A MONTH AWAY

And it's time you were thinking of that New Spring Dress for yourself and daughter.

It's so easy this year to make a pretty dress, because the fabrics are the captains of the mode. A pretty fabric means a pretty dress, and our display of New Spring Yard Goods is the talk of the town, for truly we have never before shown such an array of fabrics.

Even if you are not accustomed to sewing, you do not need to fear this year because the dresses are so simple. We have the Butterick Patterns in stock and all the necessary trimmings. They are not using much this year but buttons and ribbons.

Come in and let us show you how really easy it is to make a pretty dress at a very little cost. Below are some of the materials recently received:
