Welton, and Mrs. H. B. Linderman.

Street Sweepers At Church Here

The Street Sweepers had charge of the services at the First Christian Church last Sunday evening. Tom Daugherty led the scripture reading, and Verna Paine offered the prayer. The songs were the old patriotic airs, such as "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground," etc. The address of the evening was given by Tom Jones. It was a Memorial Day address, worthy of the day and the occasion. The speaker said the young people of the day are just as loyal to high ideals as were the fathers who gave us our great republic. The president of the Rotary Club and several other members were present to show their interest in the young people. Everybody pronounced the meeting a great success. Torrance should be proud of its new civic organization.
