Road Tests Prove Buick Quality

MANY months are spent in designing and experimental work before an automobile is actually produced in quantity. The engineering department must plan a model down to the finest detail, and then build a fleet of test cars to be used in proving that the model will stand up in actual use. Hundreds of thousands of car miles are traveled before any part is considered ready to be put into production. Many changes are usually necessary before the car meets the exacting standards set.

In order to duplicate actual road conditions and to give the car a service test more rigid than they are ever likely to receive in actual use, Buick test cars are daily put through their paces at the General Motors Proving Grounds near Milford, Michigan.

Here the cars are tested in every conceivable manner for strength, stamina, comfort, roadability and economy of operation. Each of the fifteen or twenty test cars is driven from 300 to 500 miles every twenty-four hours. They are periodically torn down and inspected for signs of wear by Buick engineers.

The picture shows a speed test in which a fifth wheel and recording apparatus is used. It is one of hundreds of tests which determine the qualities of the car.

Torrance High's First Year Book On Sale June 14

Fine Eighty-Page Annual Is Credit to Local Institution

Monday afternoon, June 14, there will be great excitement at Torrance High School, for on that date the first annual year book that has ever been published by this school will be on sale. The book has taken months of planning and labor on the part of the "Torch" staff, but it will more than repay the time expended.

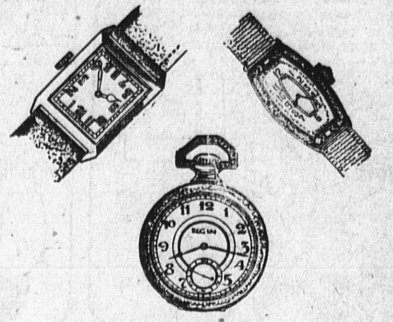

It contains 80 pages of pictures, writeups and summaries of classes, faculty, organizations and student activities. Several pages have been devoted to the alumni. Nearly all the business men in Torrance and several firms in Los Angeles have contributed advertising to make the issue possible.

About 200 subscriptions have been paid for in advance by the students. However, there will be about 30 copies to be sold to the first customers on that date at the regular price of $1.

If any of the citizens or alumni of Torrance wish to take advantage of this opportunity they want to call in with their money or send in a check early, as the extras will be in demand as soon as the books are seen.

The book is attractive, in the school colors, with an unusually distinctive embossed cover, the design being made by Richard Sinclair, one of the art students. In fact the cover is so attractive that one of the large paper firms in Los Angeles has it on display. The Torch is the name of the annual, and was suggested by Thomas Dougherty, for which honor he will receive a complimentary copy.

Ruth Lingenfelter has acted as editor and Floyd Chandler as business manager of the Torch.

Flowers in many colors, against a black background, are interesting in this jumper costume of crepe de chine, which is one of the latest models. Bands of blue crepe and crystal buttons make the only trimming necessary.

Kiwanis Club Here Does Part In U. S. Event

Torrance Program Same as Hundreds of Cities on Continent

On last Monday evening all Kiwanis Clubs of the United States and Canada held their meetings at the same hour to celebrate the opening of the international convention of Kiwanis at Montreal.

For the first 15 minutes, which was the zero hour, the same program prevailed everywhere. Torrance, Watts, Hermosa, and part of the Los Angeles club had a joint meeting at the Evangelical Church Guild Hall, with Charles Schultz chairman in charge of the program. Representatives from each club took part. A deliciously prepared dinner was served by the ladies of the Evangelical Church.
