Beacon Drug To Drop Gift Slips From Airplane

Free Boxes of Candy to Mark Birthdays of Stores

Dodgers dropped from aeroplanes, free boxes of candy and a festival of bargains will feature celebration of the thirty-fourth birthday of the Owl Drug Company and the third anniversary of the Torrance store of the Beacon Drug Company next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

That isn't all. Handbills will also be distributed in the three communities. On Monday the first five women of Moneta who bring one of these dodgers to the Beacon will be given a big box of candy.

The same plan will prevail for Lomita women on Monday, and for Torrance women on Tuesday.

Even that isn't all. The Beacon has outlined a list of bargains. And patrons who buy a dollar's worth of the advertised goods will receive a big box of candy, one box being the limit to each person.

Arthur Finster of the Beacon said today: "I am happy to be able to do these things as a mark of appreciation for the splendid patronage we have enjoyed in Torrance during the past three years."

Mrs. Anna Cook of Long Beach is a house guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fine of Oak street.

SCHOOL NEWS

HIGH SCHOOL The senior class has accepted the invitation of Mr. Lyall, minister of the Methodist Church, to attend special services on Sunday, June 20. The custom of baccalaureate has been discontinued and they will attend one church in a body from now on. Mr. Lyall urges everyone to attend.

Monday was a great day at Torrance High. At the beginning of the tenth period everyone assembled in the auditorium, and the first annual put out by Torrance High was distributed to the subscribers. Great satisfaction is felt by every student of Torrance over the first efforts toward an annual, and gratitude is hereby given to Miss Burnham. Too much cannot be said in praise of the art work executed under the direction of Miss Chase. The marine motif has been used, and the artists—Richard Sinclair, Robert Kemel, William Wilson, Thomas Dougherty, Katharine See, Doris Spoon, Mildred Raymond, and Bertha Newby—have contributed some beautiful work.

The junior girls' quartet, consisting of Charline Edward, Toshi Kiyomura, Ruth Lingenfelter and Esther Hallower, sang at the Rotary Club luncheon Thursday noon, and at Kiwanis Friday noon.

A. for next year were elected as follows: President, Christine Hammon; vice-president, Lucille Morrison; secretary, Eileen Woodburn. The nine senior girls who will receive letters are Rosalie Conkel, Geneva Holland, Helen Bodley, Isabel Hamilton, Daisy Koehler, Garnet Cook, Ida Reeve, Mary Milson, and Katherine See.

The tests taken last month in the typewriting department gave splendid results. Two silver pins, one bronze pin, and nine certificates were awarded. The tests were taken on three different makes of typewriters. The winners are: Underwood typewriter: Esther Hallower, certificate; Mildred Bell, certificate; Olive McKenzie, silver pin; Violet Crane, certificate; Nellie Middleton, certificate. Other points of interest were visited en route, and the girls report a wonderful time, with no tire or mechanical trouble. But—they are at a loss to account for the loss of one headlight, frame and all.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyes Jr. and Pep McKeag attended a card party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hefner of Los Angeles.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Synoit of 26th street were Mr. and Mrs. Dave McCrawley, formerly of Cutter, N. M., now residents of Los Angeles.
